2	Ciccarelli	Ciccarelli	Cheryl Anne Ciccarelli moved to Milton at the end of 2005. She chose to raise, along with her spouse, their two children in this town. As an amateur musician, Cheryl Anne saw a need to add art and culture to the city. Cheryl Anne and three friends formed the Milton Concert Band. Cheryl met many of the town's staff members in this endeavour. She worked tirelessly to get funding, grants, and rehearsal space. Cheryl Anne wanted to give back to the community and created the summer concert series each July in the park at the town hall. When Cheryl's children were old enough, Cheryl took a job at the chamber of commerce. Then, she became the intern director of the BIA. While at the BIA, Cheryl had a significant part in putting together the Christmas Street market. Cheryl made many friends throughout the town, including Mayor Krantz and Colin Best. Cheryl Anne passed away while on Vacation in Florida on March 11th, 2025. Honouring Cheryl Anne by naming a	Community	Recommended	Concurred	Concurred street or arts-related centre after her would be a fitting tribute.

3	Devlin Wise	Devlin	The Delvin family have lived and farmed in the Omagh neighbourhood since the 1800s. They were a pioneer family in Trafalgar Township. Family members owned various properties in the area, including the house at the SE corner of Britannia and Fourth Line. The home on this lot was built circa 1920, and the family owned the property from 1893 to 1947. The house was either built by James Devlin or his son Edward. James Devlin was James Snow's maternal grandfather. James Snow was a frequent visitor to this house during his childhood. William Devlin donated the land for Omagh Ball Park.	Veteran	Recommended	Already a Devlin Drive in Burlington	MHS has recommended use of this surname in prior years to honour veteran William H. Devlin, who served as a soldier in World War I with the Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force. This is the same William Devlin who donated the land for the Omagh Ball Park.
4	Hartwick	Hartwick	Milton Historical Society nominates Ken Hartwick, former President and CEO of Ontario Power Generation and a Milton resident of more than 35 years who was recently honoured as a Transformational Canadian (2025) by the Community Foundation of Halton North 2025 for helping to establish an endowment fund to support a hospice in north Halton through the Townsend Smith Foundation. At the university level, Kevin was a five-time OUA medalist and a two-time champion, a CIS First Team All-Canadian and a two-time Academic All-Canadian. He capped off his university career with a fifth-place finish at the International University Sports Federation games.	Community	Recommended	Concurred	Concurred
6	Larry Jaroslowski	Jaroslowski	Larry Jaroslowski was inducted into the Milton Sports Hall of Fame in 2024. He is credited with taking the Drury "Spartans" wrestling team to remarkable new heights. Two years into his coaching career at Drury, in 1986, he led E.C. Drury to its first Halton Team Championship. A year later, in 1987, its inaugural year, he led Drury to its first Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference (GHAC) Team Championship. By 1995, the program had added to its regional domination by placing fifth at OFSSA. Three years later, in 1998 and 1999, Drury won back-to-back OFSAA Team silver medals leading up to the OFSAA Team championship in 2000. Drury went on to a streak of five consecutive OFSAA championships from 2000 to 2004 and then won its sixth title in 2006 under the Craig Kielburger Secondary School Spartan banner. He is the only coach in the league's history to win six OFSAA titles.	Community	Recommended	Concurred	Concurred

13	Tesser	Tesser	In addition to the council's approval of the name Tesser in 2022 in honour of Councillor Christina Tesser Derksen, additional information is provided for the Tesser family. Erminio ("Joe") Tesser was born in Vienna, Austria, in 1910, and his wife, Erminia Daicic, was born in the Italian province of Istria in 1905. Joe immigrated to Canada in the early 1950s and worked at Streetsville Brick. Later, His wife and sons joined him in Canada, and the family settled in Milton, Nelson Township, in the neighbourhood known as "Peru," renting the property at 3216 Steeles Avenue at the intersection of Peru Road. In Milton, Joe worked for several years at the Milton Brick Company in Milton Heights. As a gifted mason and carpenter, Joe took up work with Cliff and Ray Cannon, building several homes and buildings in Milton, many of which are still in use. Joe personally worked on projects for P.L. Robertson and many other Milton families. Many of his homes are still occupied, including a residence on Bronte Street. Joe and his family attended Holy Rosary Parishes at Milton Heights and Martin Street and spent time at the Italian Canadian Club on Tremaine Road. In 1957, Joe and their family built their house at 9 Peru Road, where	Community	Not recommended. 14	Ellwood	Ellwood	Lorne and Dorothy Ellwood moved here after WW2 and lived in Kingsleigh Court when it was first developed. Ellwood drove a cross-country bus just after the war, so he was not here much until he became the driver for the Ontario School for the Deaf in the 1960s. He drove the kids home or picked them up if their parents could not provide transport. The kids lived in the residence back then. He was the first bus driver at EC Drury and worked at "The Manor," as we called the LTC home in Ontario back then. Gary Ellwood lived here for over 70 years until his death last year. Grandma Ellwood had a hair salon in her home from 1954 and did the hair for the older ladies at "The Manor" next to the School for the Deaf. She died in 1969 of breast cancer at age 49. Unfortunately, he had a stroke in 1968 and had to retire. Ellwood's came from Saskatchewan. Everyone in town from those days will remember both the Ellwood.	Community	Not Recommended.
