

Cultural Heritage Value or Interest Evaluation

Ontario Regulation 9/06 of the Ontario Heritage Act establishes the criteria for determining Cultural Heritage Value of Heritage Resources. A property must have the potential to meet at least two of the criteria to be considered to have heritage significance. These criteria fall into three categories: design or physical value, historical or associative value and contextual value. The following table considers and evaluates the subject property against these criteria.

Table 6: Evaluation of the Cultural Heritage Value of 8048 Twiss Road

The property has design value or physical value because it,
	Criteria	Evaluation
i	is a rare, unique, representative or early example of a style, type, expression, material or construction method	Yes, this house is a late Victorian architecture transitioning into an Edwardian architectural style.
ii	displays a high degree of craftsmanship or artistic merit	Yes, the smooth red bricks used for this house are from the local brickworks
iii	demonstrates a high degree of technical or scientific achievement	No, the property does not demonstrate a high degree of technical or scientific achievement
The property has historical value or associative value because it, i	has direct associations with a theme, event, belief, person, activity, organization or institution that is significant to a community,	Yes, It is a historical home of Frank McNiven, who served as Councillor and Reeve, governor of the Halton County Jail, the area's Police Chief, and Town of Milton assessor.
ii	Yields or has the potential to yield, information that contributes to an understanding of a community or culture	Yes, it provides historical information on the settlement history of the Nassageweya historic township.
iii	demonstrates or reflects the work or ideas of an architect, artist, builder, designer or theorist who is significant to a community	No, this house does not demonstrate or reflects the work or ideas of an architect, artist, builder, designer or theorist who is significant to a community
The property has contextual value because it, i	is important in defining, maintaining or supporting the character of an area	No, this house is not important in defining, maintaining or supporting the character of an area

ii	is physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings	No, this house is not physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings
iii	is a landmark	No, the property is not a landmark.

Based on the above criteria, the subject property has significant cultural heritage value based on both design and contextual criteria. These attributes are sufficient to warrant Heritage Designation under the Ontario Heritage Act. However, designation may not be necessary at this time as the property is current listed on the Municipal Heritage Register, which offers it some protection from demolition.
