- Street Address:
- Town
Milton
- Postal Code:
- Are you representing a group?
No
- Council Meeting Date
9/8/2025
- Please indicate how you intend to participate during the Council Meeting
In person
- Please describe the issue you intend to present:
I would like the opportunity to present to council on the importance of directing funding from the new budget toward various community safety measures. The current climate among residents share rumbles of concern, fear, frustration and anger toward to current state of community safety and enforcement in the Town of Milton. Myself and many others are concerned for the direction Milton is headed in and fear that it will mimic and mirror our larger city neighbours of Mississauga and Brampton. Please take time to considered my proposal and presentation and allow me the opportunity to speak to it in person.

- Please describe specific actions you want Council to take:
I would like council to direct increased funding for policing by adding additional officers, increased funding for town Bi-Law staff and enforcement officers and accountability measures, and increased funding for traffic calming measures such as increased red light cameras, speed cameras and clear defined language and laws that address the dangerous operation of electric scooters/ bikes in public spaces and roadways
- Please provide your comments in support of or in opposition to the staff recommendation:
I have not received a recommendation. I was encouraged by my town ward councillor to apply to be a delegate at the September 8th council meeting to address budget and funding
