

Appendix 'A' _Proposed Street Names to be approved

Nominated Street Names	Proposed Street Name	Reasons	Criteria in Policy	Recommendation
Abiola Akinremi	Akinremi	A mental health nurse by trade, Abiola spearheaded a hands-on medical supplies drop from Milton to Nigeria, and personally led a series of free health clinics in Nigeria for the public	Community	Recommended
Rubina Ali	Ali	A pillar of the community who alongside her husband and fellow Rotarian Sohail Naseer are involved in countless community projects via Rotary, including hosting Rotary International Youth Exchange students, planning Rotary District Conferences, and executing numerous projects for the benefit of Milton and its youth; also served as Milton Rotary's secretary	Community	Recommended
Jean Assamoa	Assamoa	Named 2025 Milton Chamber of Commerce Citizen Of The Year. Mr. Assamoa is President of the Akwaba Cultural Exchange.	Community	Recommended
Adejisola Atiba	Atiba	Ted Talks speaker, political candidate during 2025 Ward 1 by-election in Milton	Community	Recommended
Victoria Bach	Bach	Inducted into Town of Milton Walk Of Fame in 2026. Former Professional Women's Hockey League player.	Community	Recommended
Charles H. Beeton	Beeton	Milton Rotary Club President	Community	Recommended
Megan Carter	Carter	Inducted into Town of Milton Walk Of Fame in 2026. Current Professional Women's Hockey League player.	Community	Recommended
M.J. Carton	Carton	M.J. Carton dedicated his life to public service and community involvement in the Milton area, serving in various township councils and local organizations. He remains active and respected for his leadership and contributions, especially to community projects and local history. Mr. Carton ran for Nassageweya Council from 1908 and spent nine years on the Council He was Reeve 1917. He also spent four years on Esquesing Council including two as Deputy-Reeve. His 55 years with the Milton Fair and recognition with an Agricultural Service Award highlight his influence in agriculture. Carton's legacy continues through his family and the many organizations he shaped over a lifetime of service. His son Clarence was killed in the first world War. He bought a farm at 9285 Tremaine in 1911 and his family lived on this farm until 1995.	Community	Recommended
Rosanna Conteduca	Conteduca	Named 2025 Milton Chamber of Commerce Joyce Hagevik Volunteer Of The Year. Ms. Conteduca is President/Chair of Italian Cultural Centre of Milton.	Community	Recommended
James Douglas	Douglas	Milton Rotary Club President	Community	Recommended
Les Dziadula	Dziadula	Work 60 years as Construction Inspector and supervisor at Halton Region, Halton Region Merit Award Winner	Community	Recommended
J. Allen Francis	Francis	Milton Rotary Club President	Community	Recommended
Gordon MacIntosh	Macintosh	Involved in Rotary's fundraising efforts in the 1950s to support as it was then known, the Milton and District Association for Retarded Children; was involved in a Milton Rotary Cribbage League;	Community	Recommended
Tina Mbinda	Mbinda	From Kenya, Tina is a major leader in Milton Rotary's international projects through collaboration with Rotary Clubs in Oakville and Burlington, and has helped execute major water and sanitation projects in Africa and Central America over a period of many years	Community	Recommended
Robert Morrison	Morrison	Milton Rotary Club President	Community	Recommended

Sohail Naseer	Naseer	Ontario Ministry of Labour Inspector; First Milton-based Rotary District Governor since Mike Ledwith in the 1970s, in charge of 50 Rotary clubs in SW Ontario; Engineer and President of the Oakville Chapter of Professional Society of Engineers of Ontario; first person of colour to be Milton Rotary Club President	Community	Recommended
---------------	---------------	--	-----------	-------------

Adewale 'Wale' Osamiluyi	Osamiluyi	Multiple Paul Harris Award recipient; heavily involved with Rotary at the International and District levels for Youth, Foundation and Service; Served as Assistant District Governor for Rotary in North Halton	Community	Recommended
Pasqualino	Pasqualino	The Pasqualino family has been a cherished member of the Milton community for over 30 years. In 2002, they founded Pasqualino Fine Food. Fine Wine., a downtown restaurant that has become a beloved local institution known for authentic Italian cuisine and warm hospitality. The Pasqualino family has consistently given back to the community through hosting fundraisers for local causes, including Milton Special Olympics, serving as President of the Milton Italian Canadian Club.	Community	Recommended
Oswaldo Pento	Pento	Oswaldo (Ozzie) Pento moved to Milton in 1976 and, together with his wife Lydia, established two thriving businesses in the community: Supreme Auto Collision and High Point Truck Collision. Ozzie was passionate about sports, spending 13 years coaching his three sons, Fabio, Jason, and Paul in soccer, and also enjoyed bowling and golfing throughout Milton. He passed away on July 27, 2024, at the age of 71.	Community	To be evaluated and confirmed
Sanford Family	Sanford	John Sanford (1909-1997) was a dedicated dairy farmer for 25 years, residing at 5348 Tremaine Road, between Britannia and Lower Base Line. He regularly supplied milk to the local community. His wife, Madeline, was an active volunteer at Milton Hospital, the Blood Donor Clinic, and Halton Manor (Allendale). Together, they played a significant role in volunteering at Holy Rosary School. Their daughter, Jane, volunteered as a Candy Striper at Milton Hospital from 1965 to 1968, and became a Registered Practical Nurse (RPN) from 1972 to 1988, and later worked in the physiotherapy department from 1988 to 1992. Jane also coached girls' baseball in 1974-1975 and again in 1983. In 1970, she was crowned Halton Plow Queen, representing the community in numerous parades.		Recommended
Ronald Smith	Smith	Term 2 of 2 Terms as Milton Rotary Club President; Local Accountant who was a key member in many local projects including Milton Santa Claus Parade, Milton Canada Day, and scholarships and bursaries	Community	Recommended

Maitland Spencer	Spencer	Structural Engineer working on large and significant projects throughout Ontario and served as Milton Rotary's club secretary for many years; key member in fundraising efforts via the Milton Rotary Online Auction to benefit local youth projects	Community	Recommended
Wanless	Wanless	James Wanless Sr. is linked to the Milton Minor Hockey Association in the late 1960s. He was a coach for Milton Hockey Association and Canadian Junior B hockey team for ten years. Jane Jean Wanless was a volunteer at Milton District Hospital in the gift shop. very involved in the community worked at Milton Hydro. James H Wanless Jr coached teams for Milton Youth Soccer. He started Milton girls hockey along with Ronnie Horne and was a coach for Milton junior and senior girls hoickey and sponsored many teams. and my parents owned Videoflicks the largest store in Milton at the time they loved this town. Priscilla J.Wanless own a videolick store in Milton.	Community	Recommended
Henry Wloka	Wloka	Milton Rotary Club President	Community	Recommended