

ENGAGEMENT TOOL: SURVEY TOOL

Living in Milton

Visitors 707	Contributors 114	CONTRIBUTIONS 114
---------------------	-------------------------	--------------------------

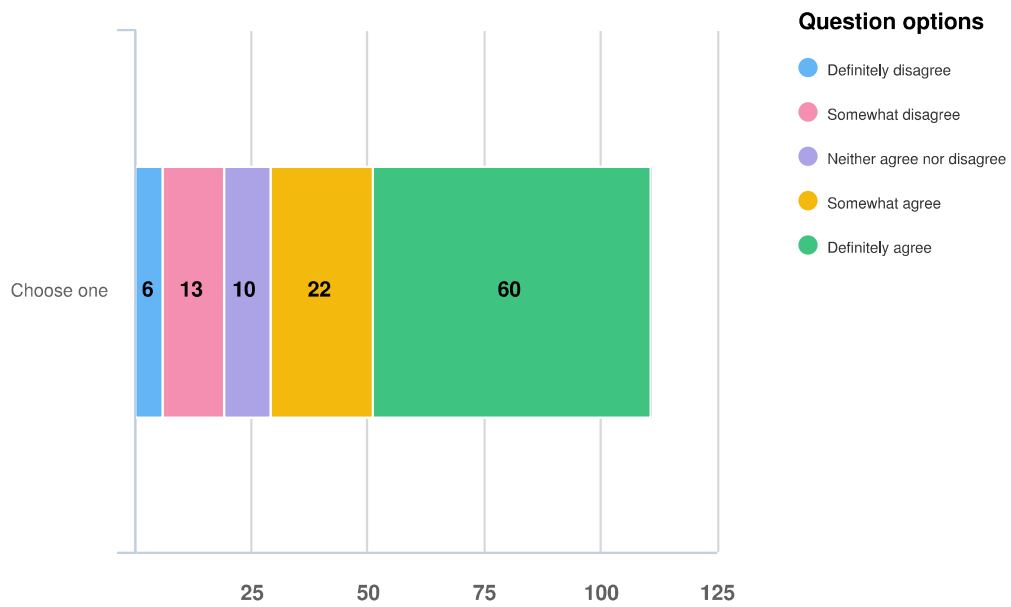

The new OP could provide direction for the completion of a local housing strategy to assist in understanding and addressing...

Optional question (112 response(s), 2 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

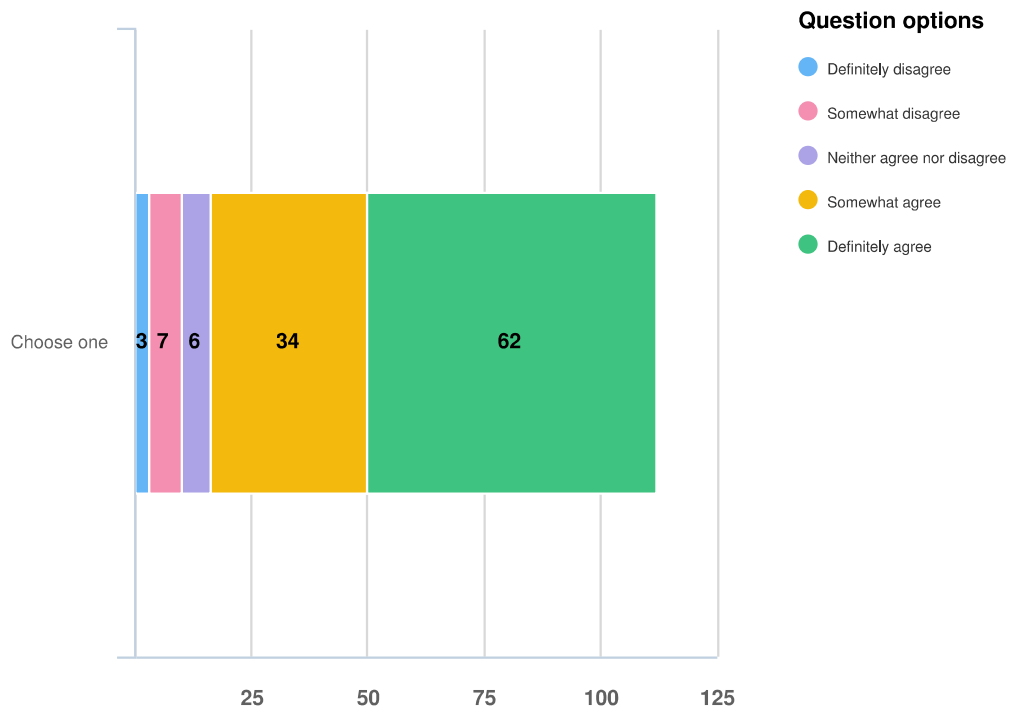

We could implement alternative development standards and requirements that will encourage more affordable housing choices. ...

Optional question (111 response(s), 3 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

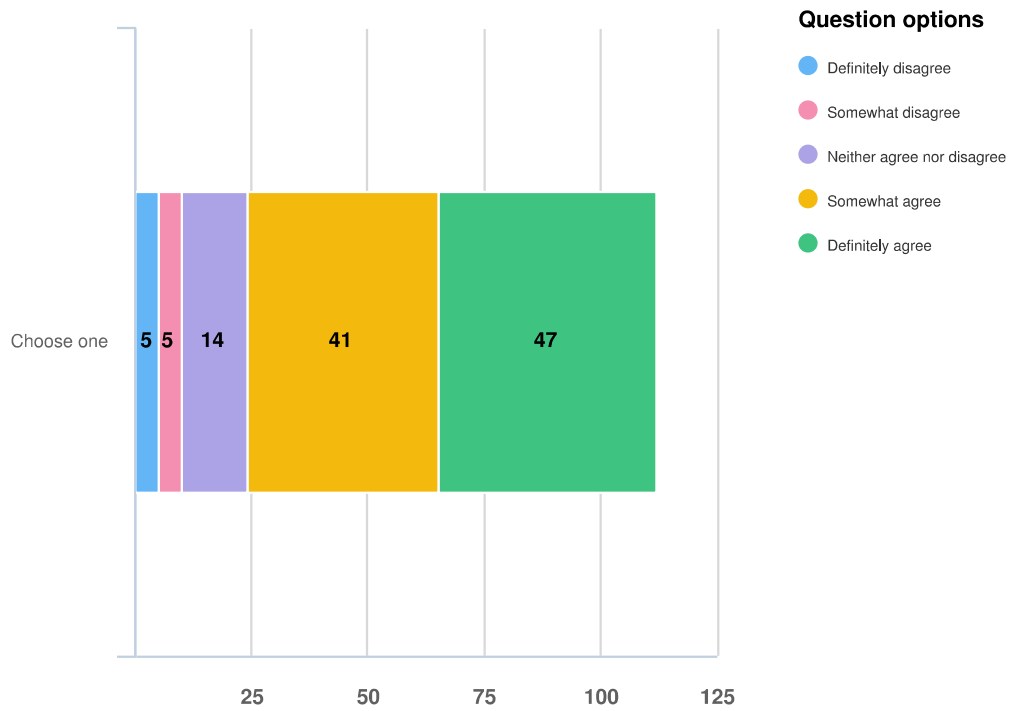

The new OP could provide direction for local monitoring and reporting on housing targets. Monitoring and reporting on housin...

Optional question (112 response(s), 2 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

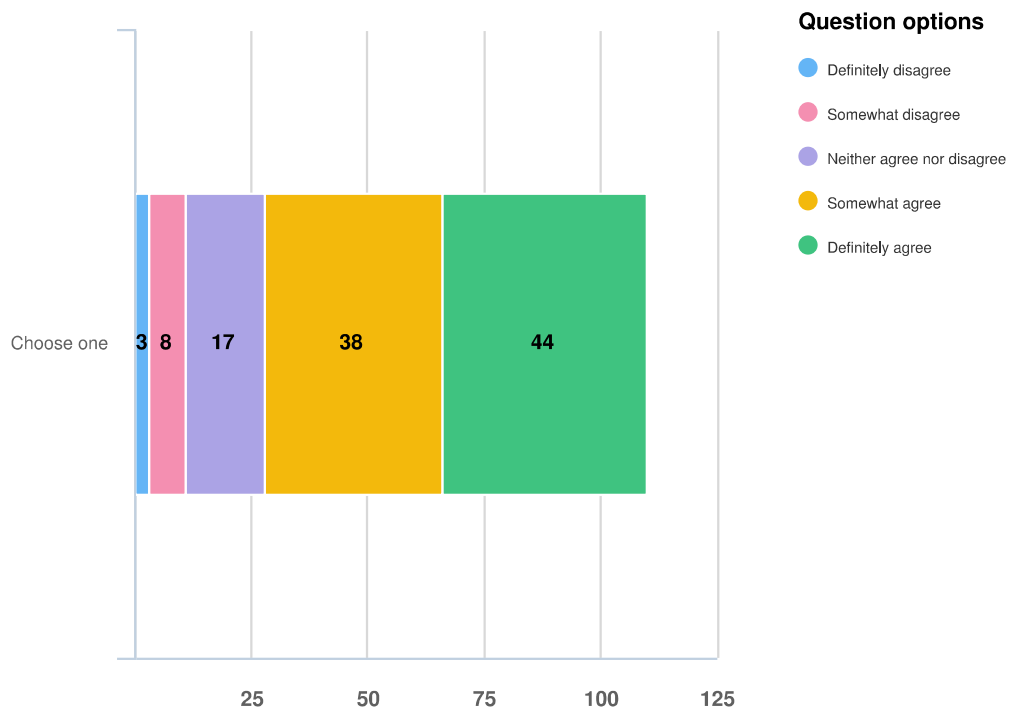

The new OP could consider when and where a Community Planning Permit System (CPPS) might be implemented to streamline proce...

Optional question (112 response(s), 2 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

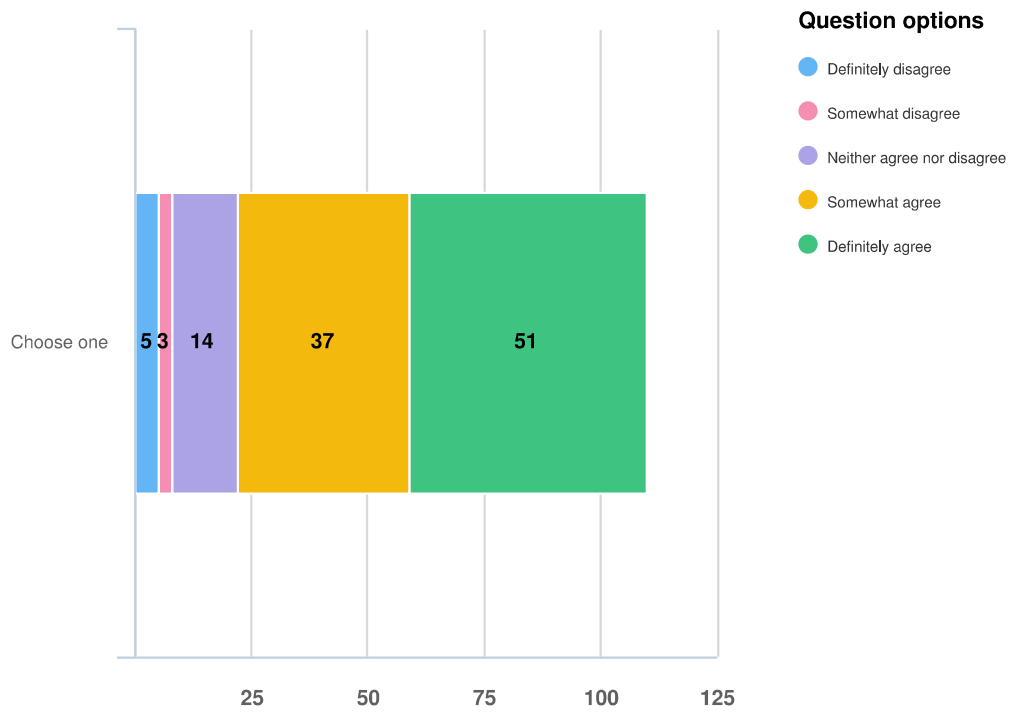

The new OP could provide direction for the use of a community improvement plan (CIP) to assist with the provision of afford...

Optional question (110 response(s), 4 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

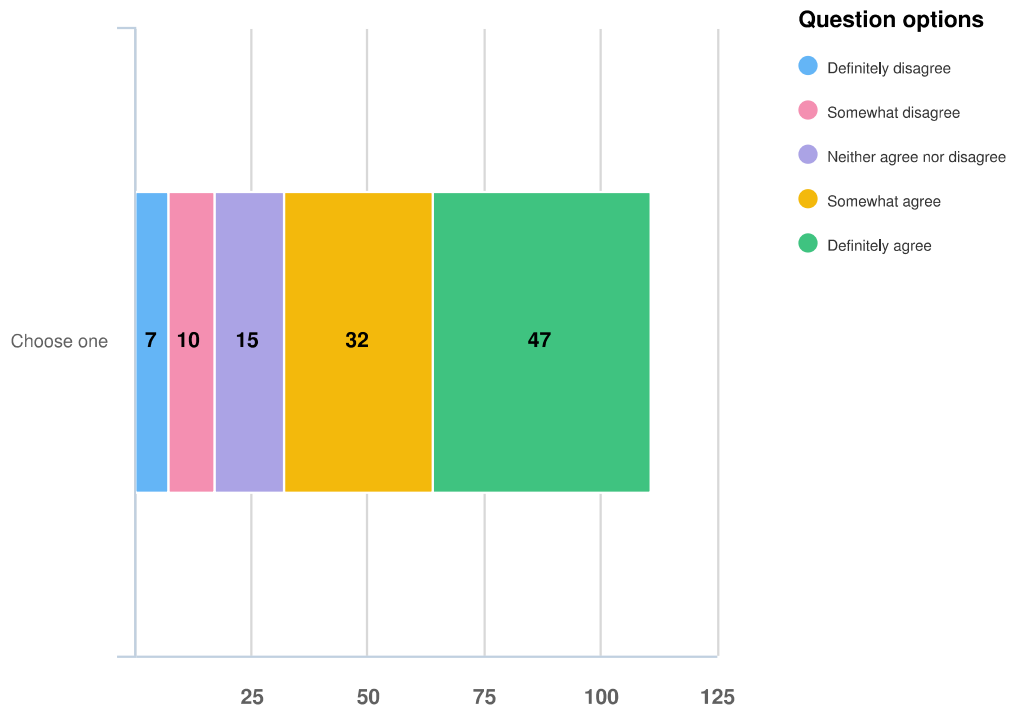

The new OP could include language that seeks partnerships and encourages senior levels of government to participate in the ...

Optional question (110 response(s), 4 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

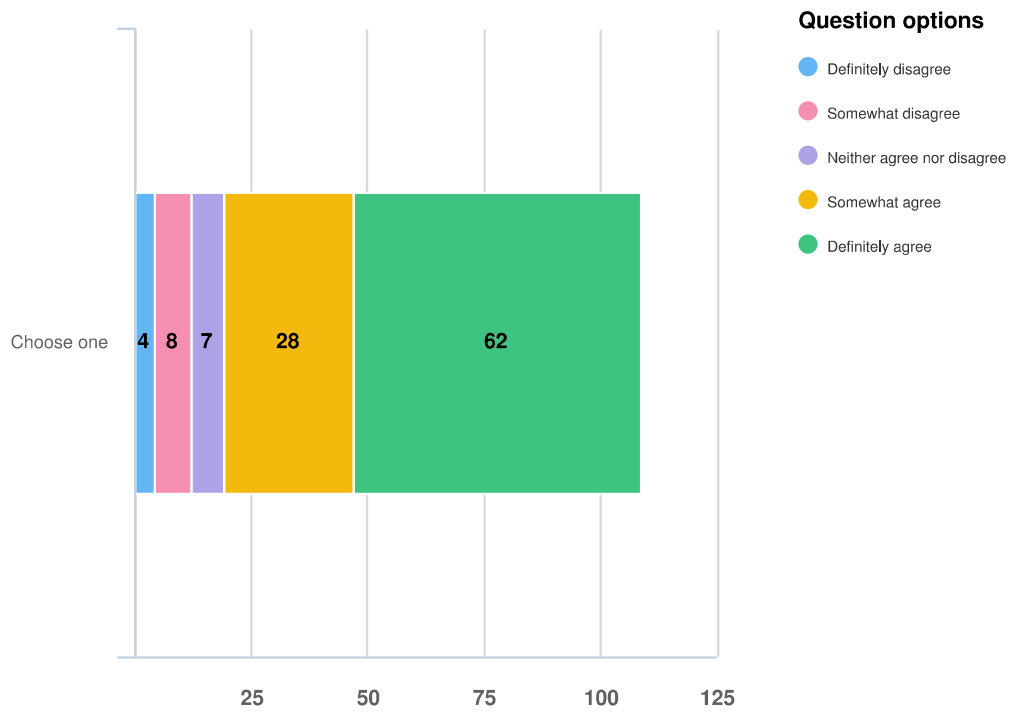

The new OP could provide direction for preserving purpose-built rentals through conversion and demolition by-laws. New OP p...

Optional question (111 response(s), 3 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

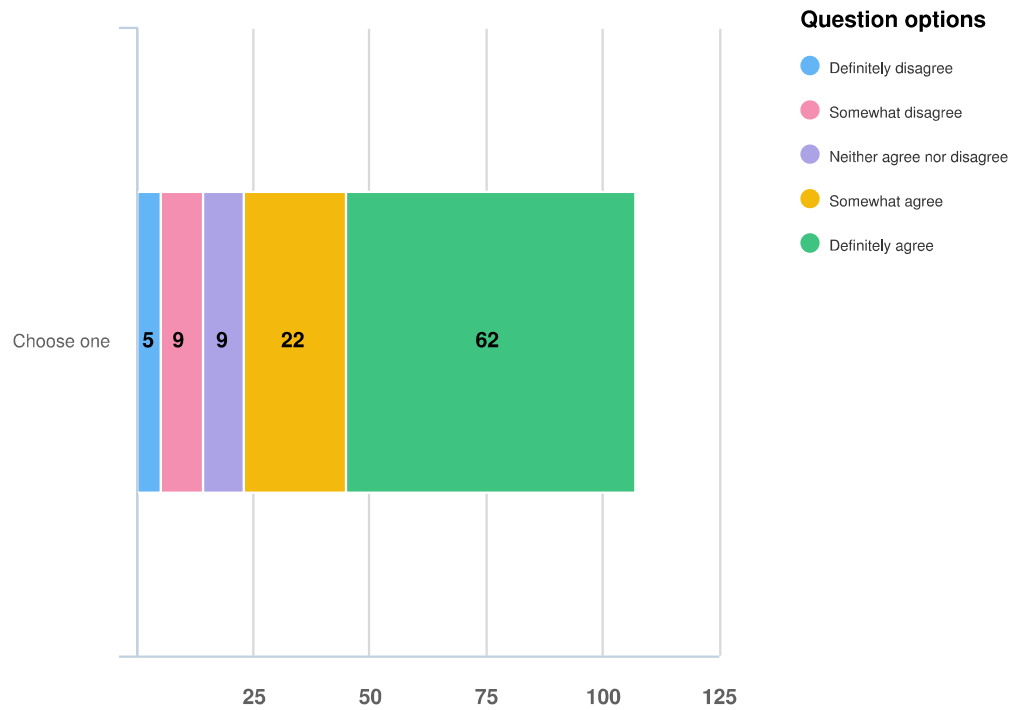

Our overall approach, goals, and objectives regarding climate change and community resiliency could be articulated in the n...

Optional question (109 response(s), 5 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

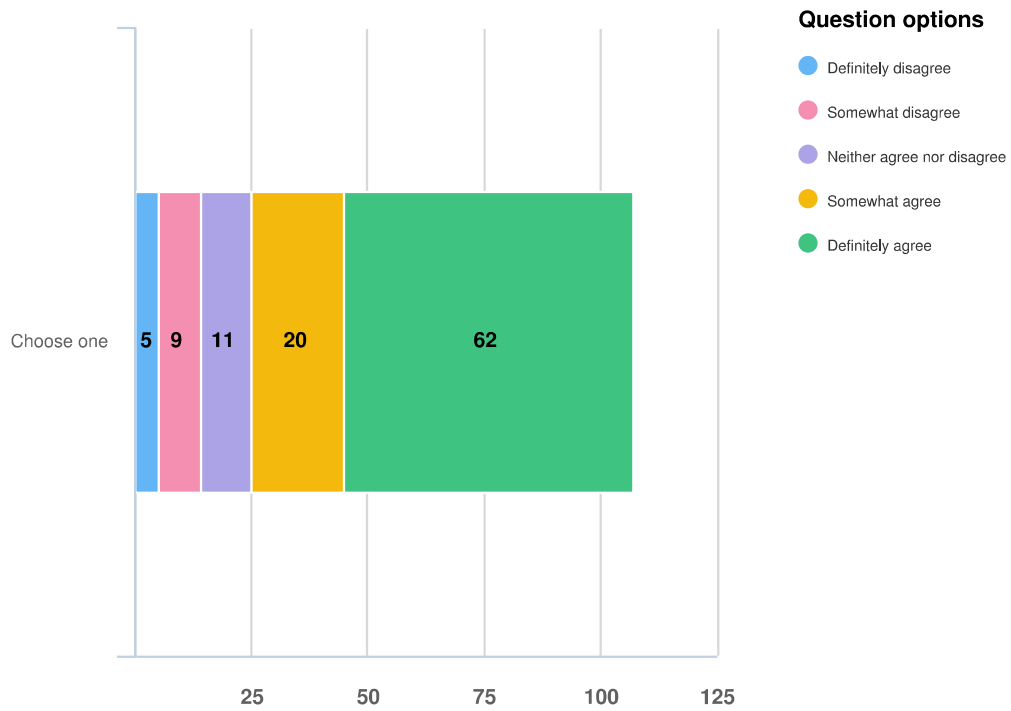

There are several ways that climate change and resiliency policies could be embedded in the new OP. While the new OP will b...

Optional question (107 response(s), 7 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

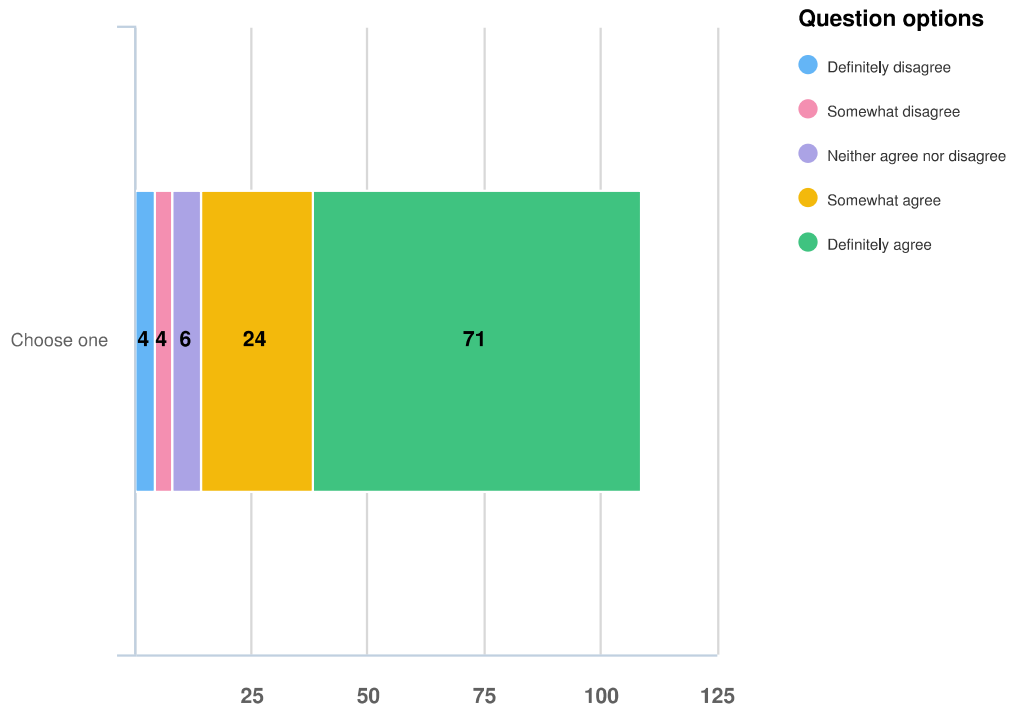

The new OP could identify ways to achieve targets from our Community Energy Plan, the Corporate Energy Plan, and/or other p...

Optional question (107 response(s), 7 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

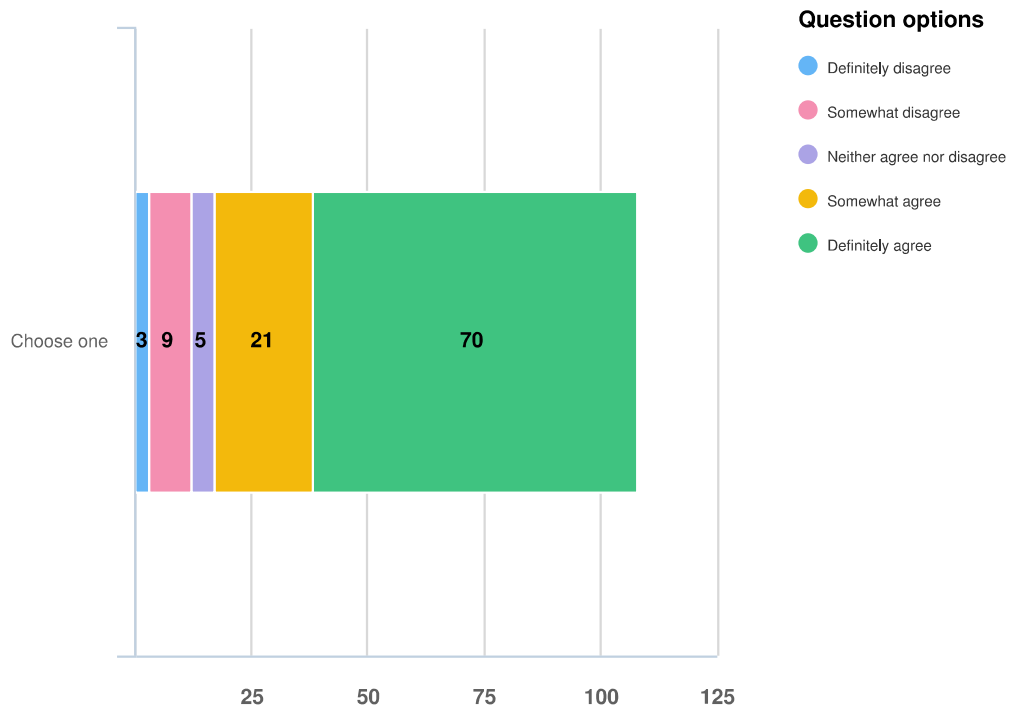

The new OP could provide direction/enabling policies for future planning studies, zoning regulations, design guidelines, an...

Optional question (109 response(s), 5 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

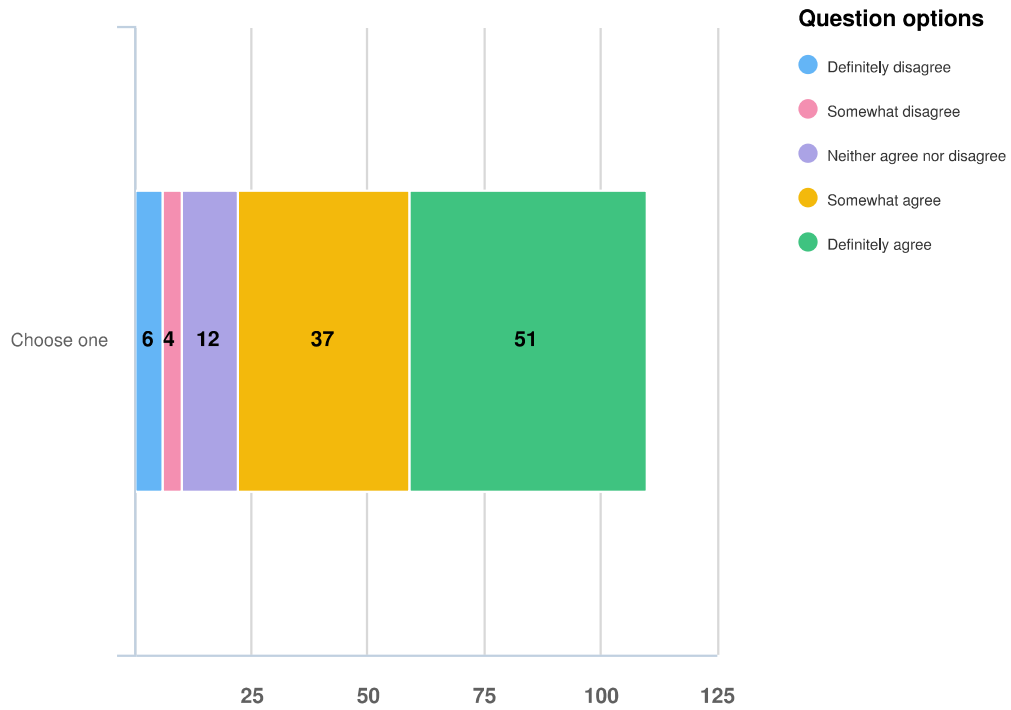

We could explore opportunities to go beyond basic conformity requirements. There may be an opportunity to include more strin...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

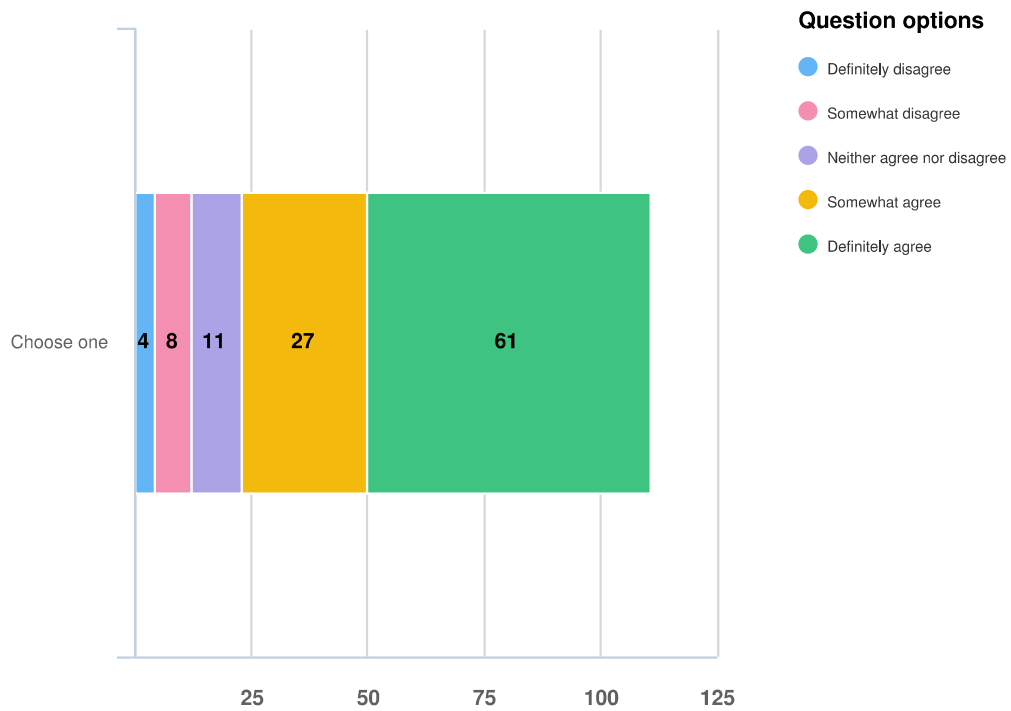

The new OP could ensure that there are enabling policies and clear direction for the use of financial incentives to support...

Optional question (110 response(s), 4 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

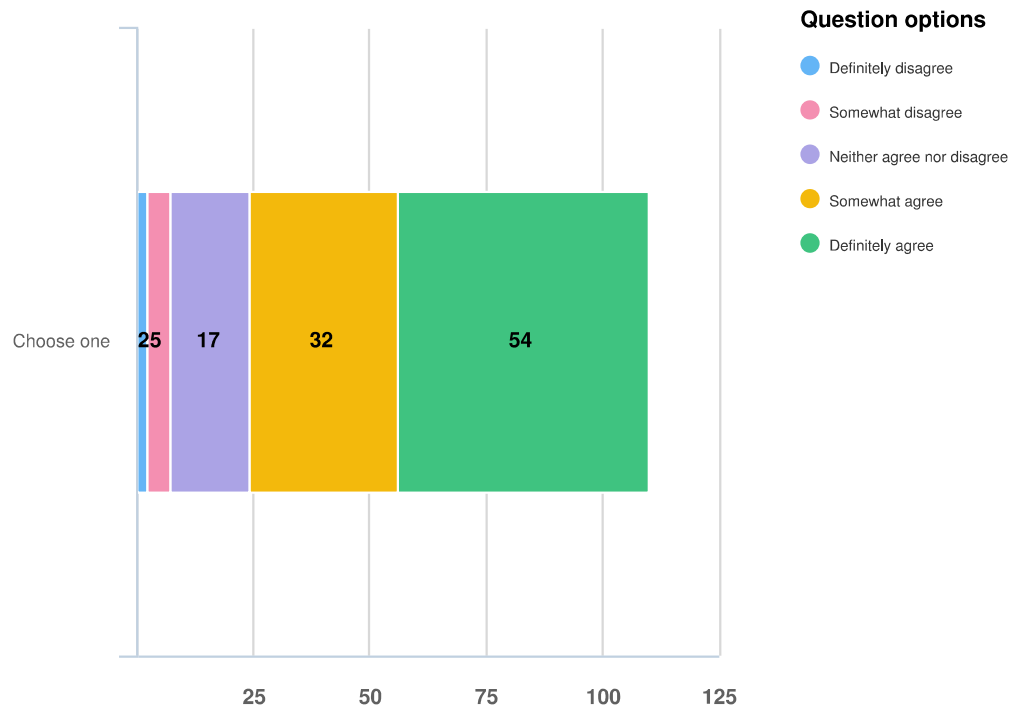

The new OP could incorporate and highlight the stories and history of our Indigenous and pioneering communities. There is a...

Optional question (111 response(s), 3 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

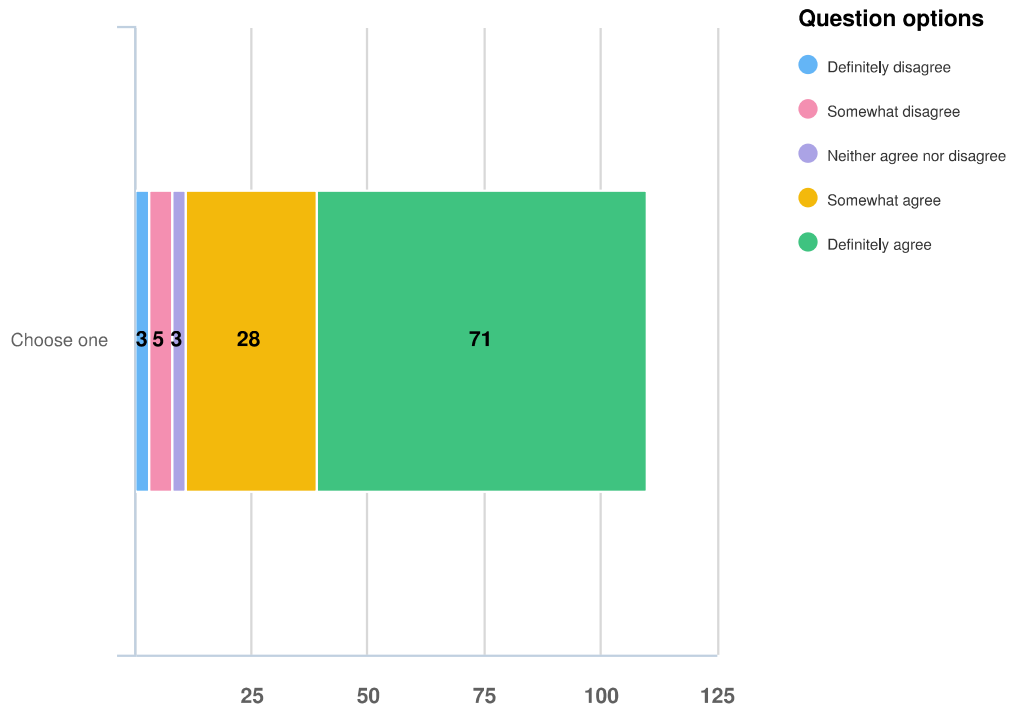

The new OP could provide direction for continued education, promotion, and information-sharing about our cultural heritage ...

Optional question (110 response(s), 4 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

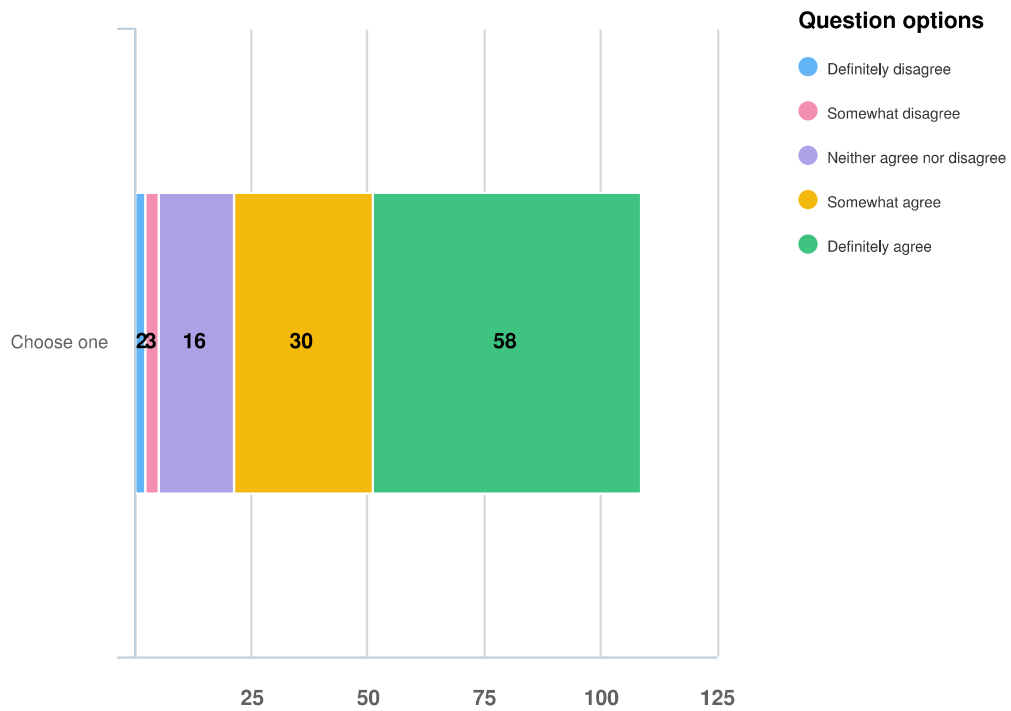

The new OP could address how other lands, beyond those in the Parks and Outdoor Recreation Hierarchy, can contribute to the...

Optional question (110 response(s), 4 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

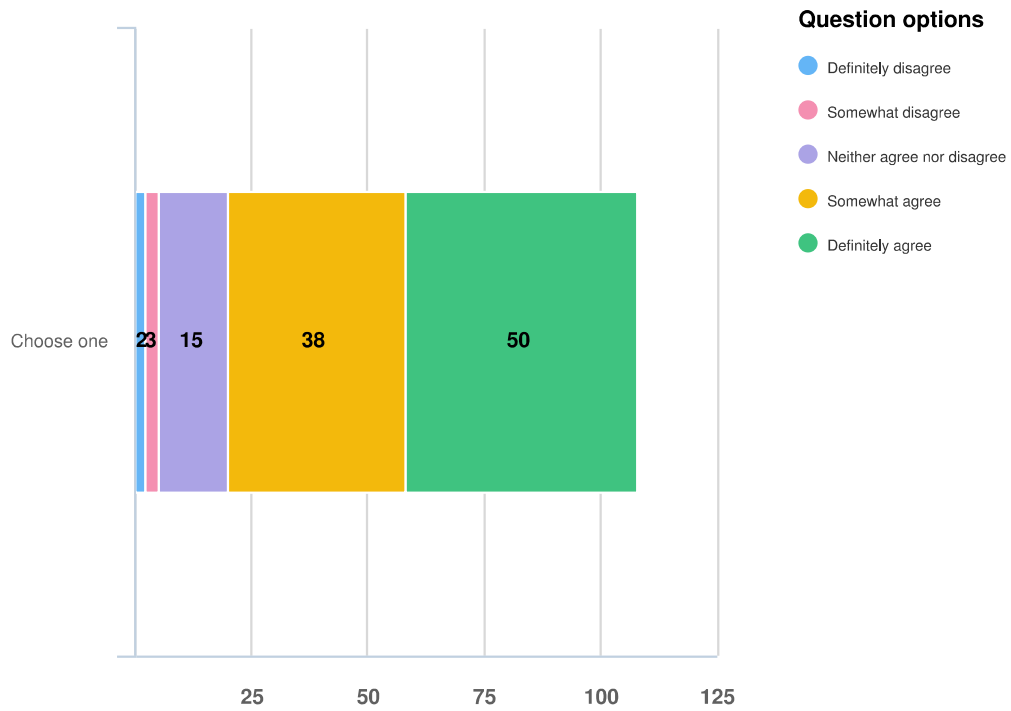

The OP could build in flexibility in adjusting provision goals and requirements in tandem with intensification, land use tr...

Optional question (109 response(s), 5 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

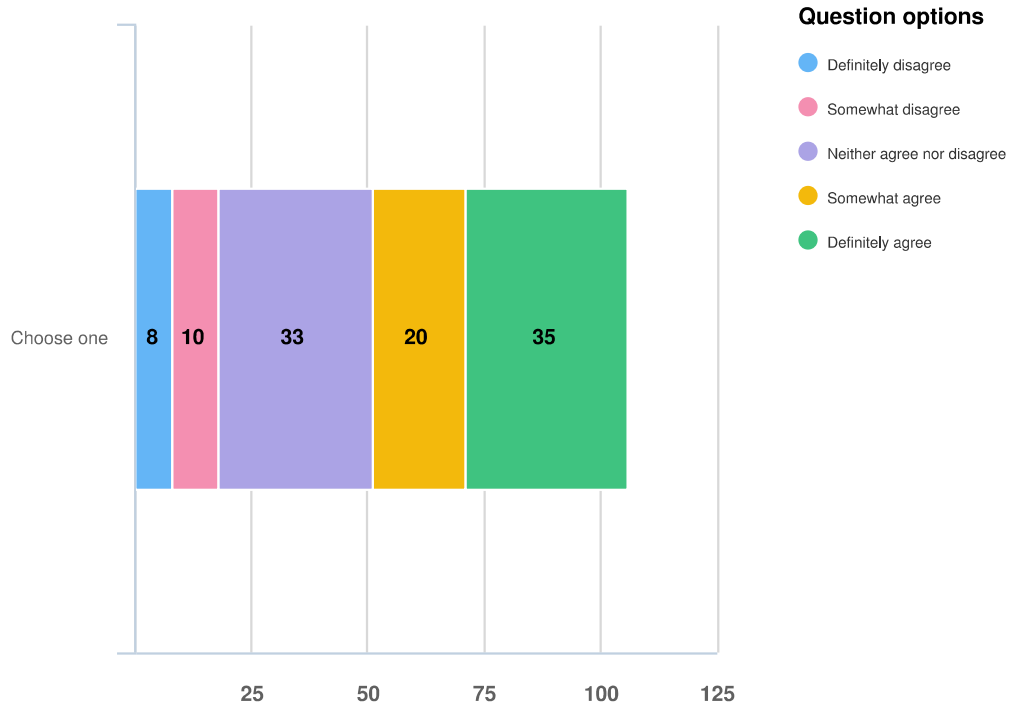

The OP could build in flexibility in adjusting provision goals and requirements in tandem with intensification, land use tr...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

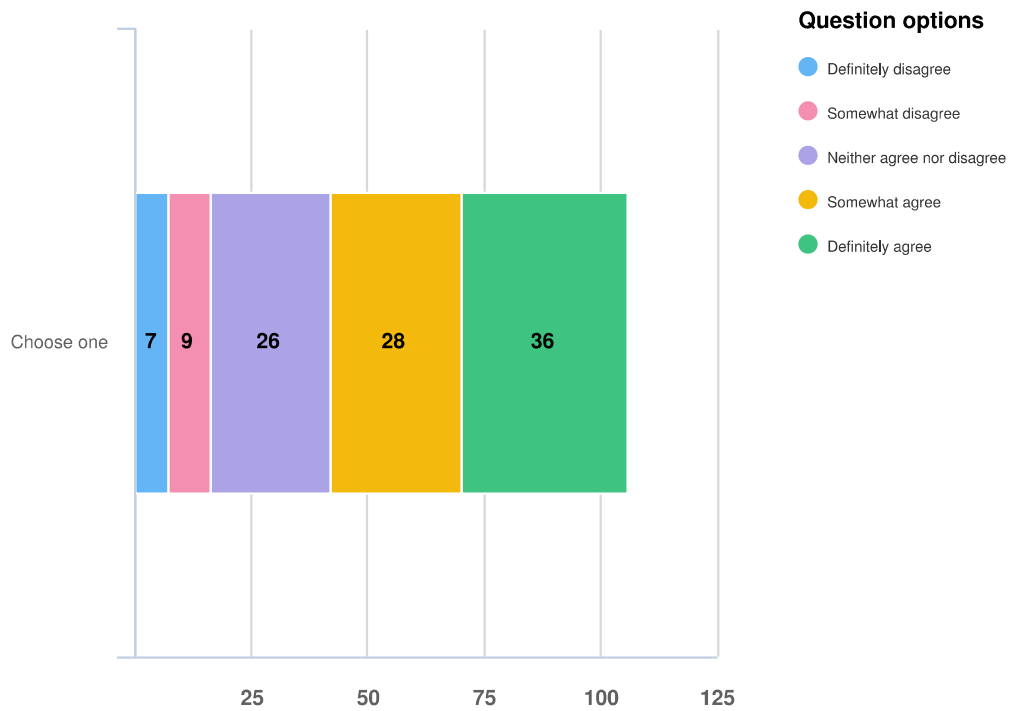

Milton could require that faith groups are engaged early in the planning process (for secondary plans and other growth area...

Optional question (106 response(s), 8 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

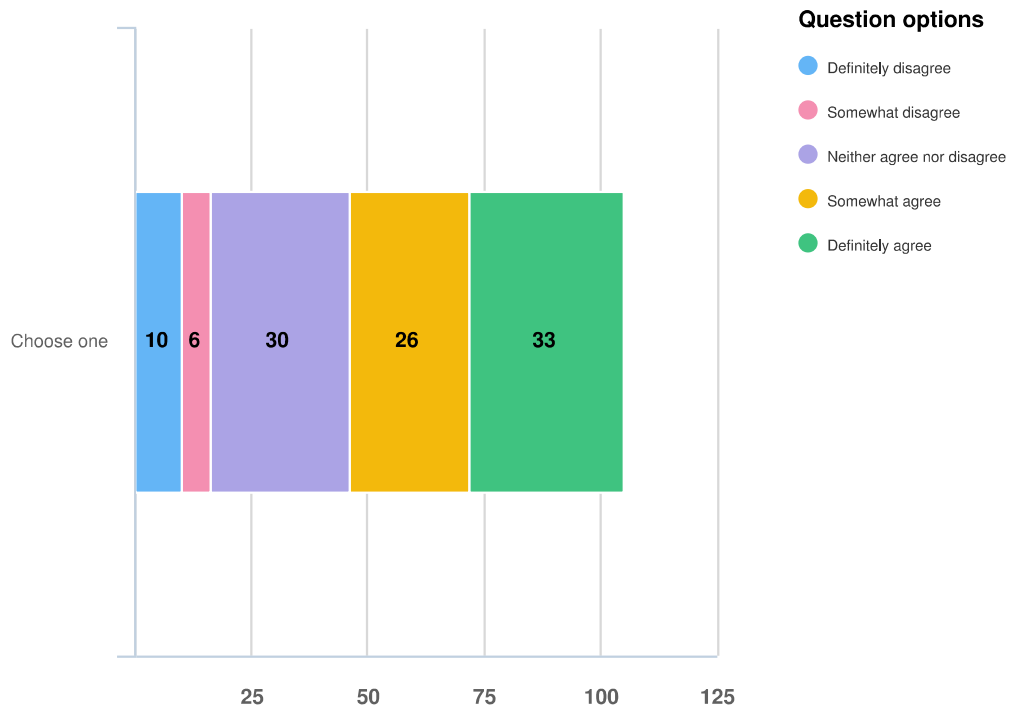

Milton could provide more direction for the use of site reservation policies for places of worship in new secondary plans/a...

Optional question (106 response(s), 8 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

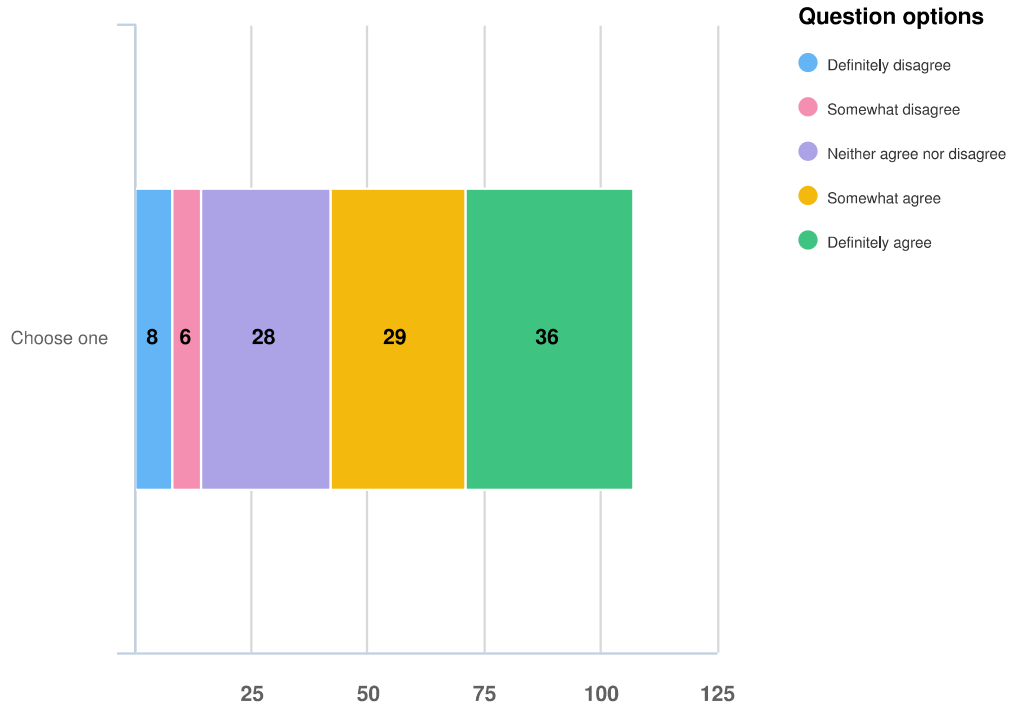

Milton could provide more direction for the use of site reservation policies for places of worship in new secondary plans/a...

Optional question (105 response(s), 9 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

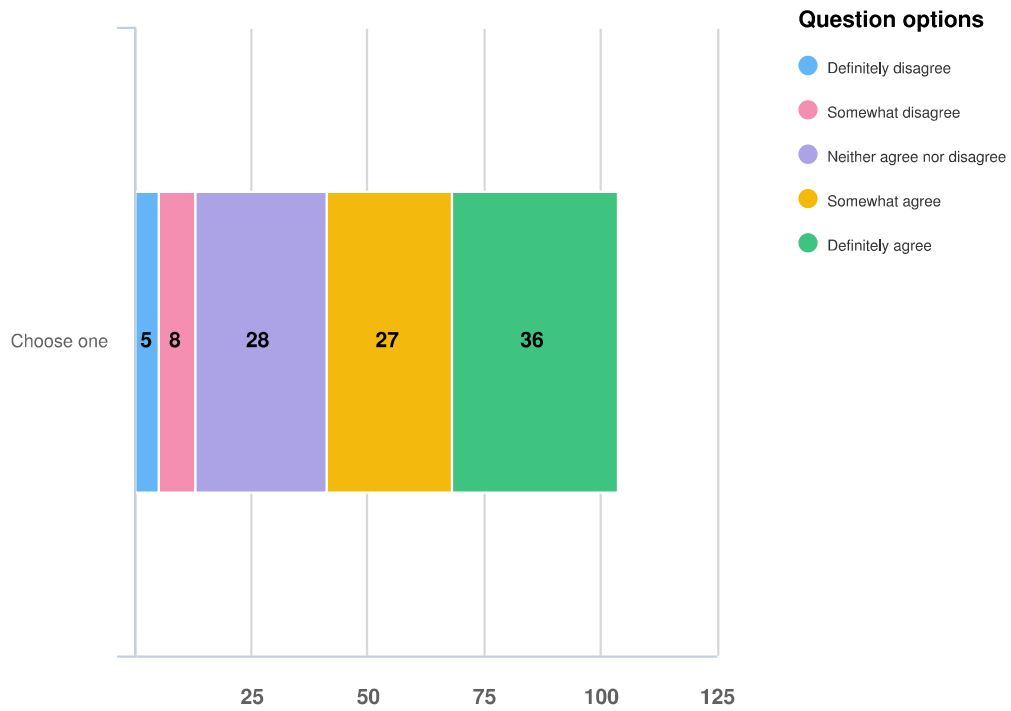

The new OP could define size and location criteria to distinguish between regional (major) versus local (minor) places of w...

Optional question (107 response(s), 7 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

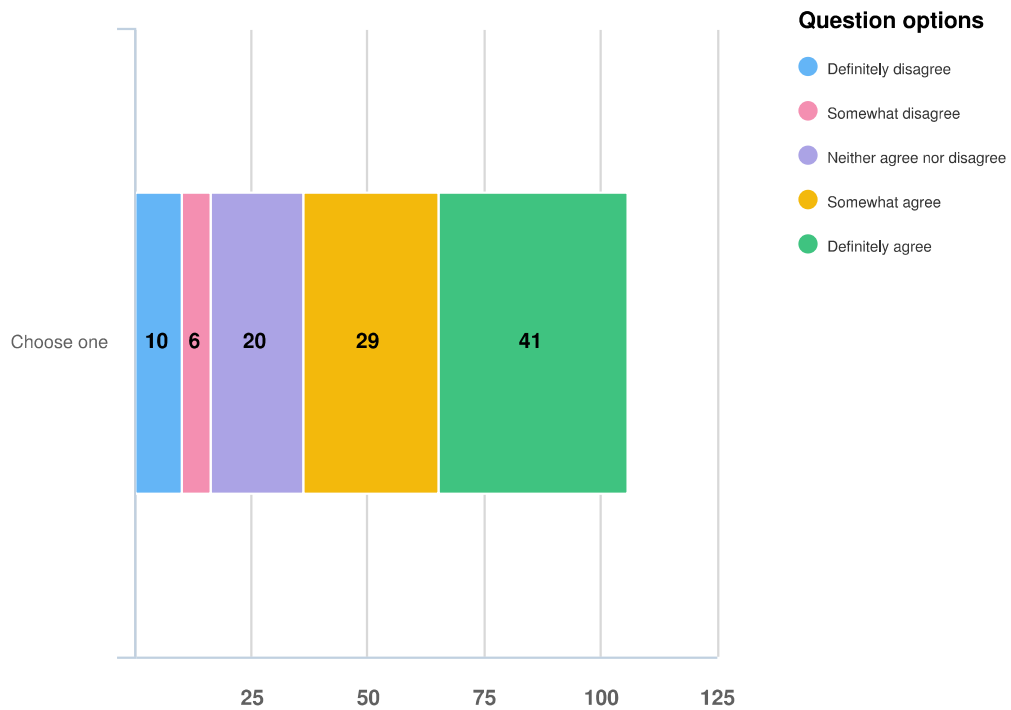

The new Official Plan could provide definitions for: place of worship, accessory uses, auxiliary uses, community infrastruc...

Optional question (104 response(s), 10 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

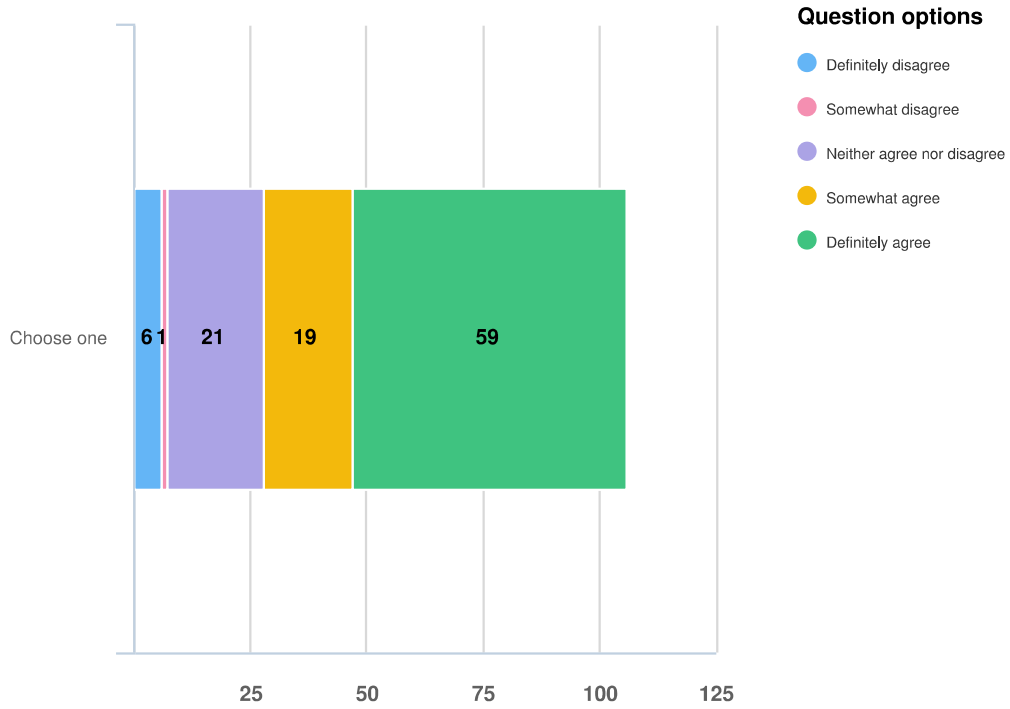

Milton could continue to encourage and support places of worship as shared/co-located uses. The co-location of places of wo...

Optional question (106 response(s), 8 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

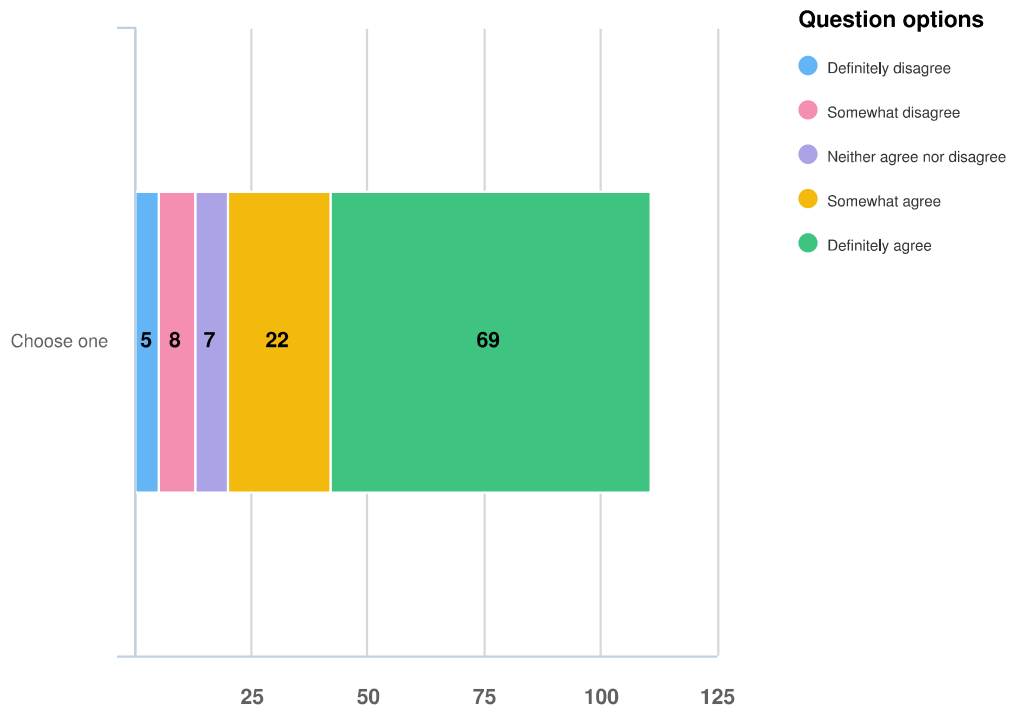

The new Official Plan could provide enhanced direction for parking and other site requirements for places of worship, to be...

Optional question (106 response(s), 8 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

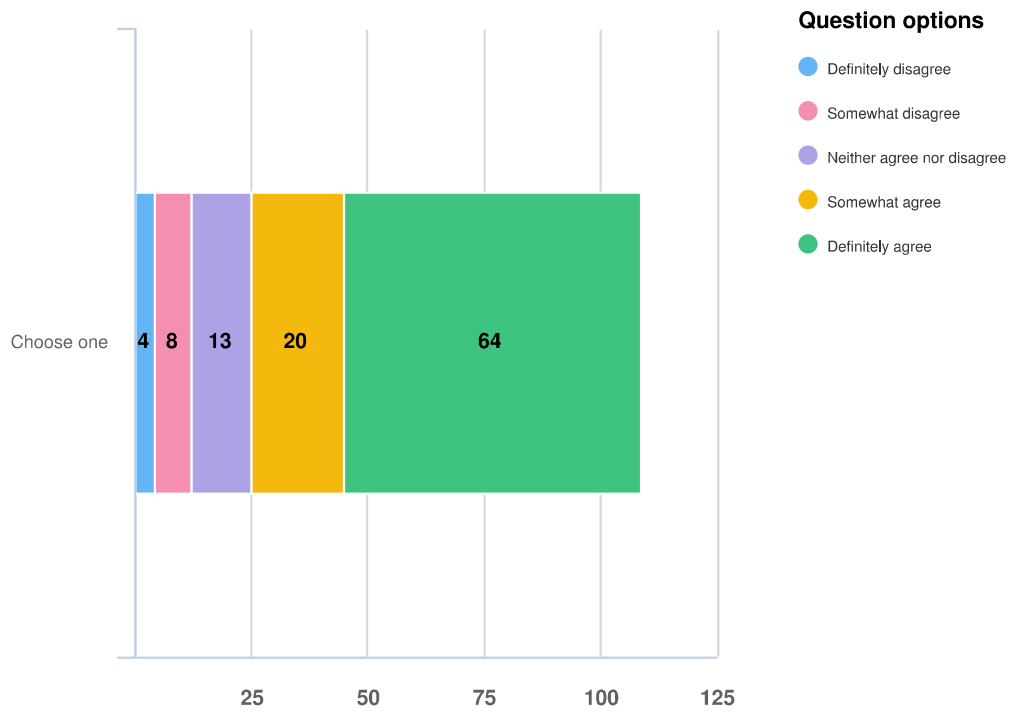

The OP could recognize the uniqueness and the past, present, and future of Milton's rural area, including hamlets, through ...

Optional question (111 response(s), 3 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

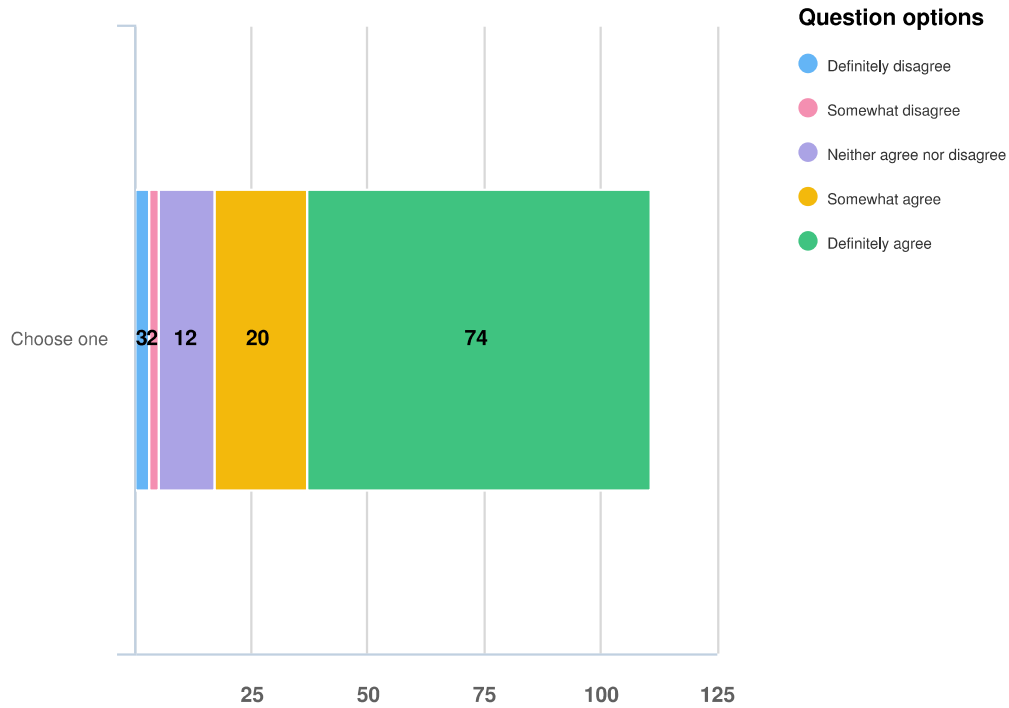

Hamlet designations and permitted uses could be updated to help achieve Milton's vision, goals, and objectives for the rura...

Optional question (109 response(s), 5 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

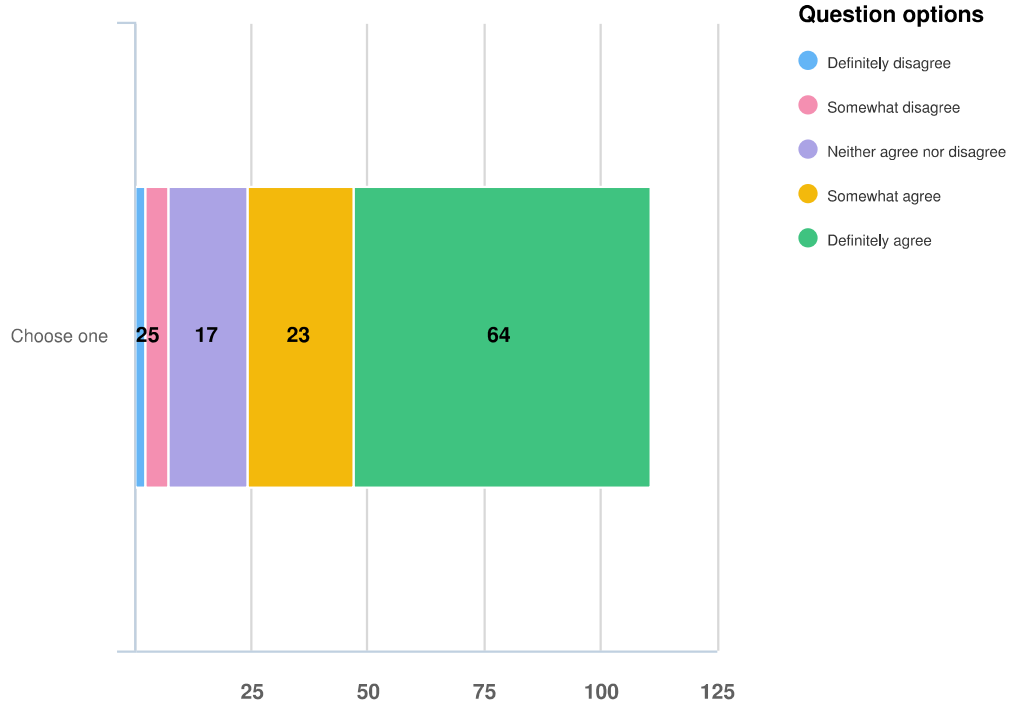

The OP could include policies to support broadband infrastructure. While the provision of broadband infrastructure involves...

Optional question (111 response(s), 3 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

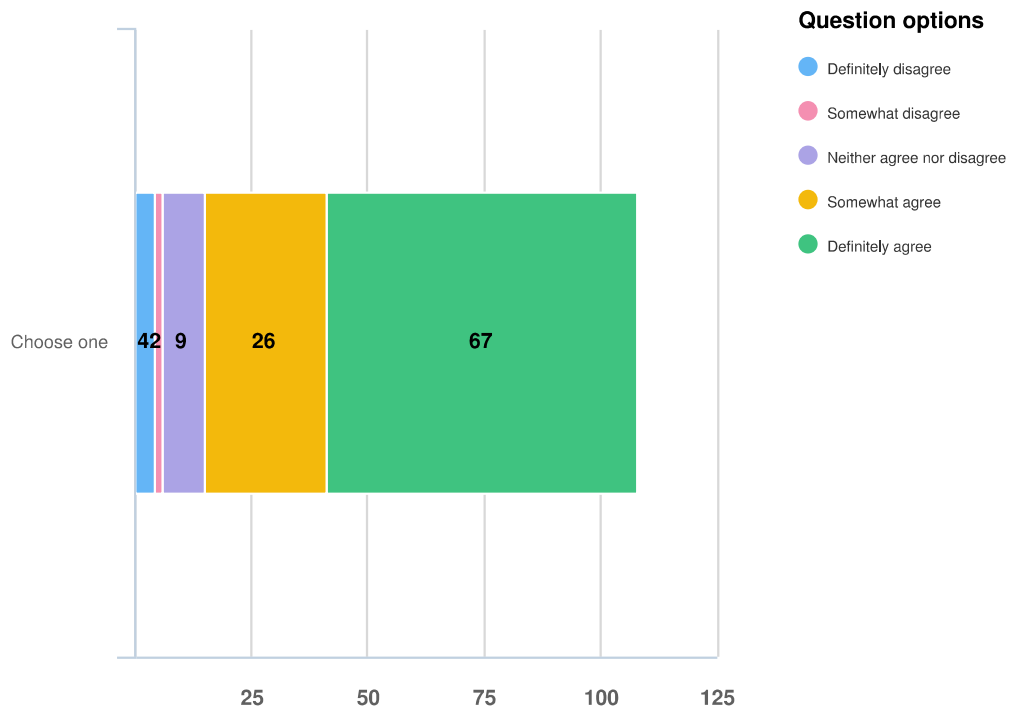

New OP policies could outline a description of the importance, need and measures/procedures to specifically engage with the...

Optional question (111 response(s), 3 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

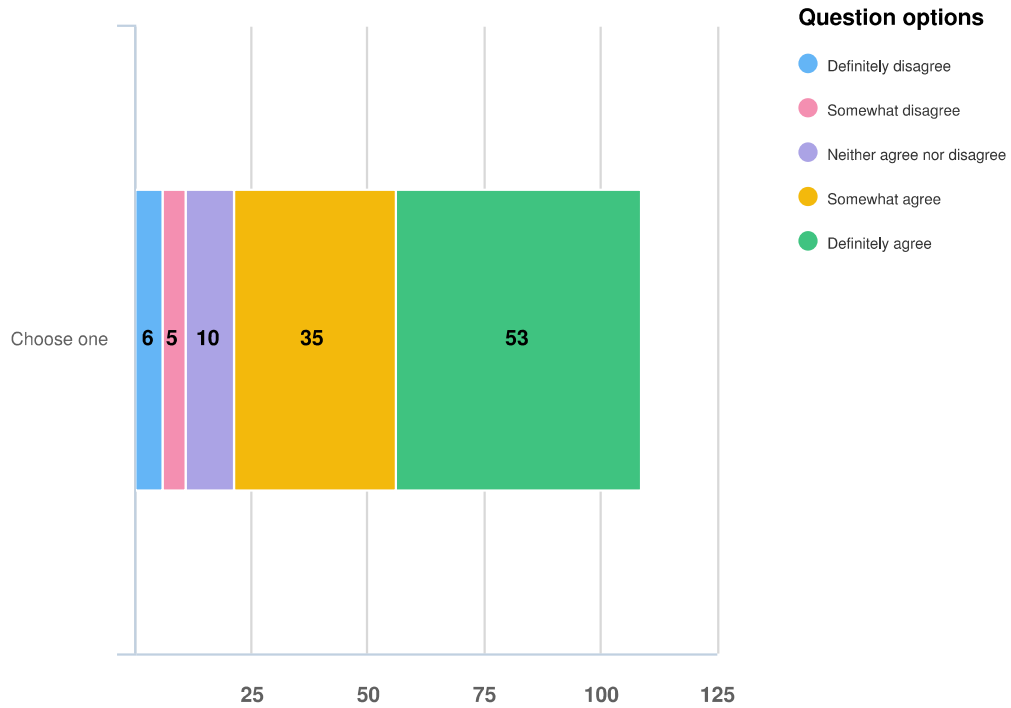

Our core principles, goals, and objectives regarding design excellence could be articulated in the new OP. There is an oppo...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

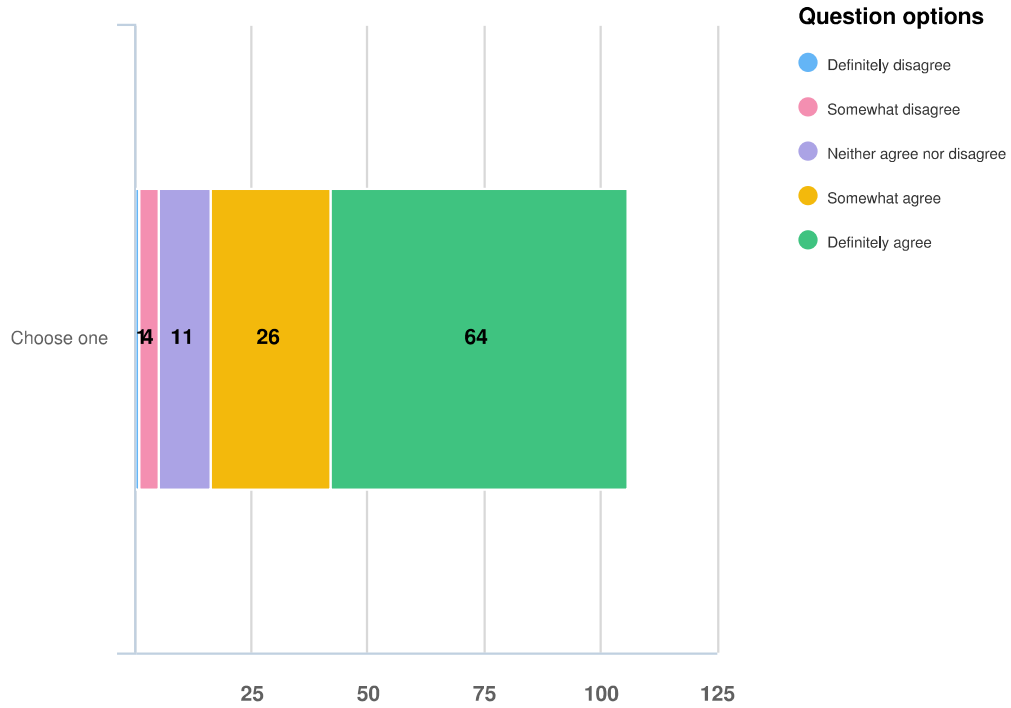

Urban design policy language could be qualitative, direct, and imperative. Policy language could remain qualitative rather ...

Optional question (109 response(s), 5 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

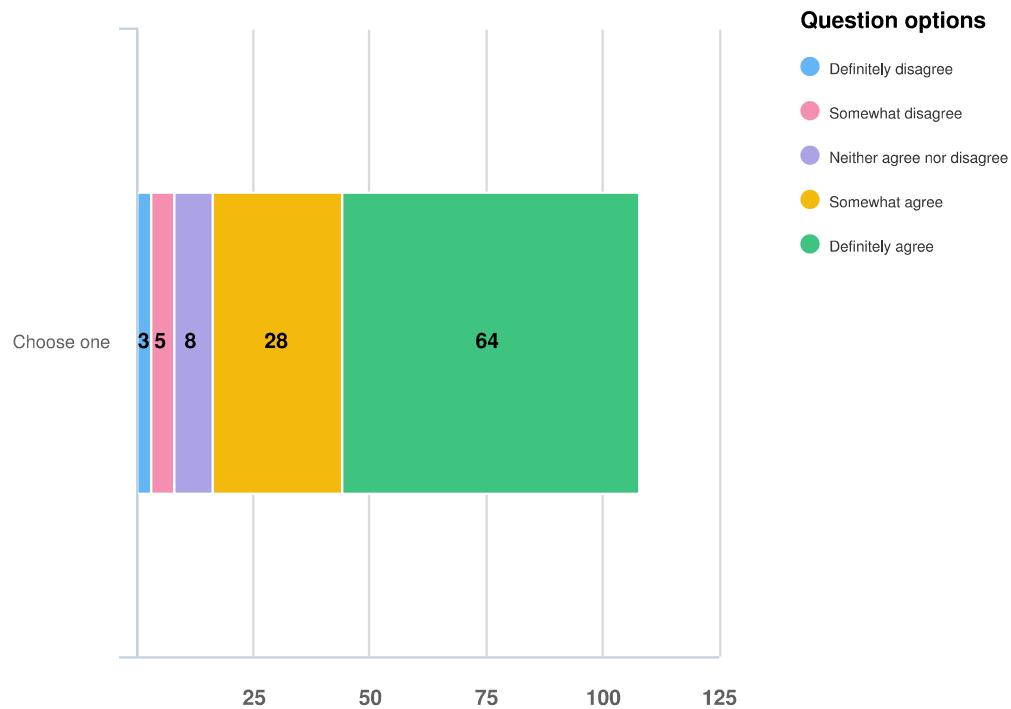

Urban design policies could provide enhanced design directions for each component of the Town's urban structure. Urban desi...

Optional question (106 response(s), 8 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

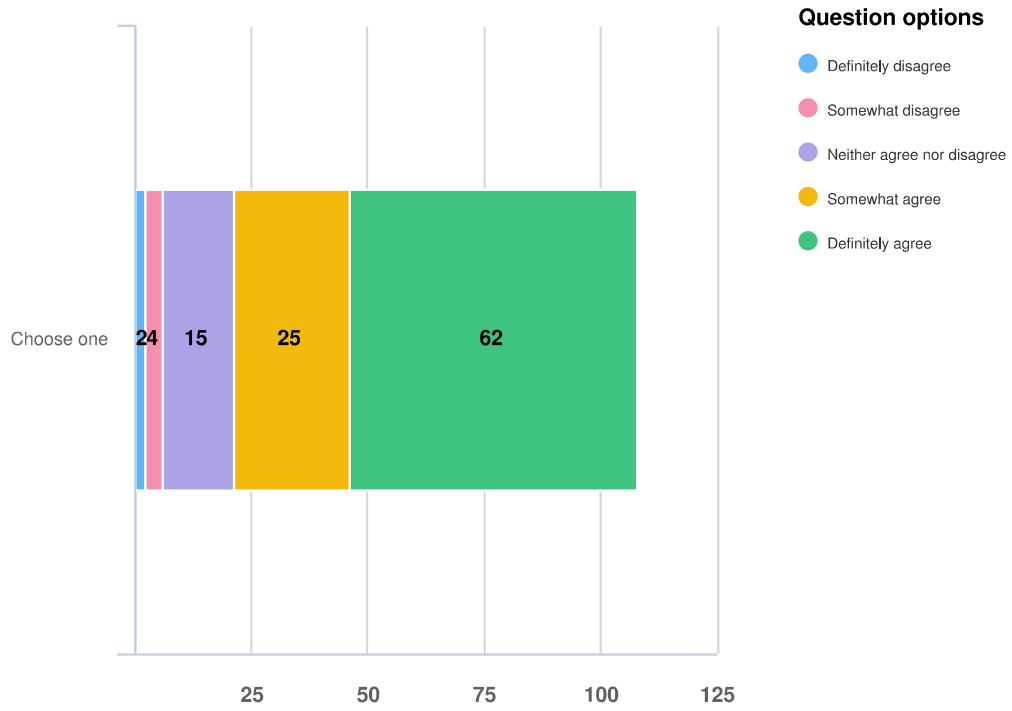

Urban Design policies could also address different built form typologies. Enhanced definitions and design guidance for othe...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

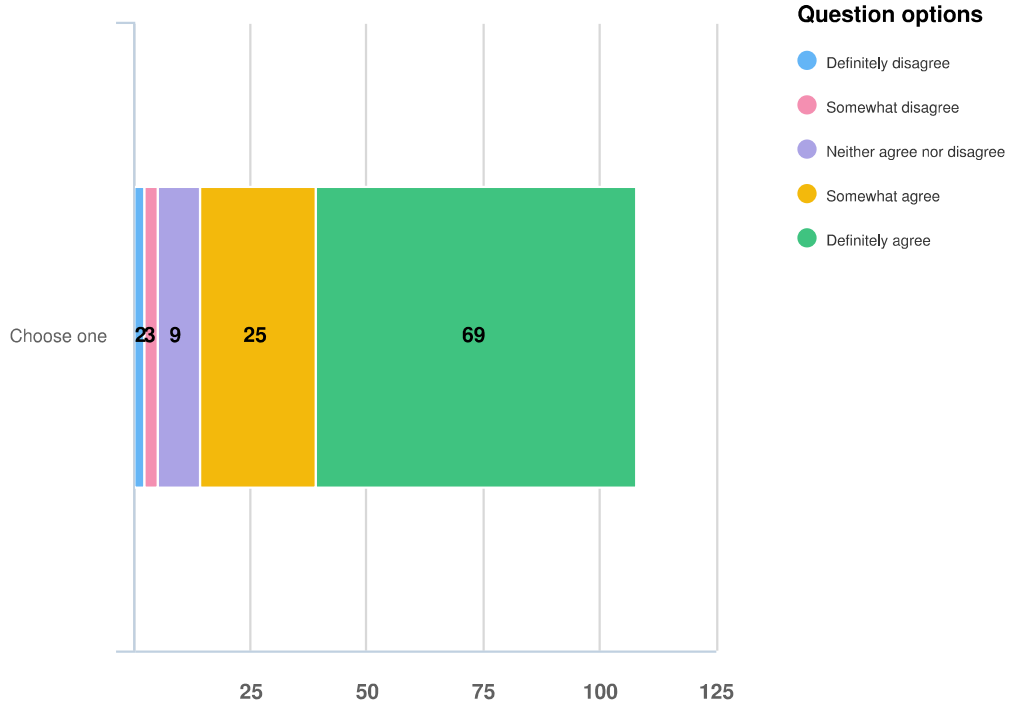

The new OP could provide direction and enabling policies to the extent possible for:
future planning studies, design guidel...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

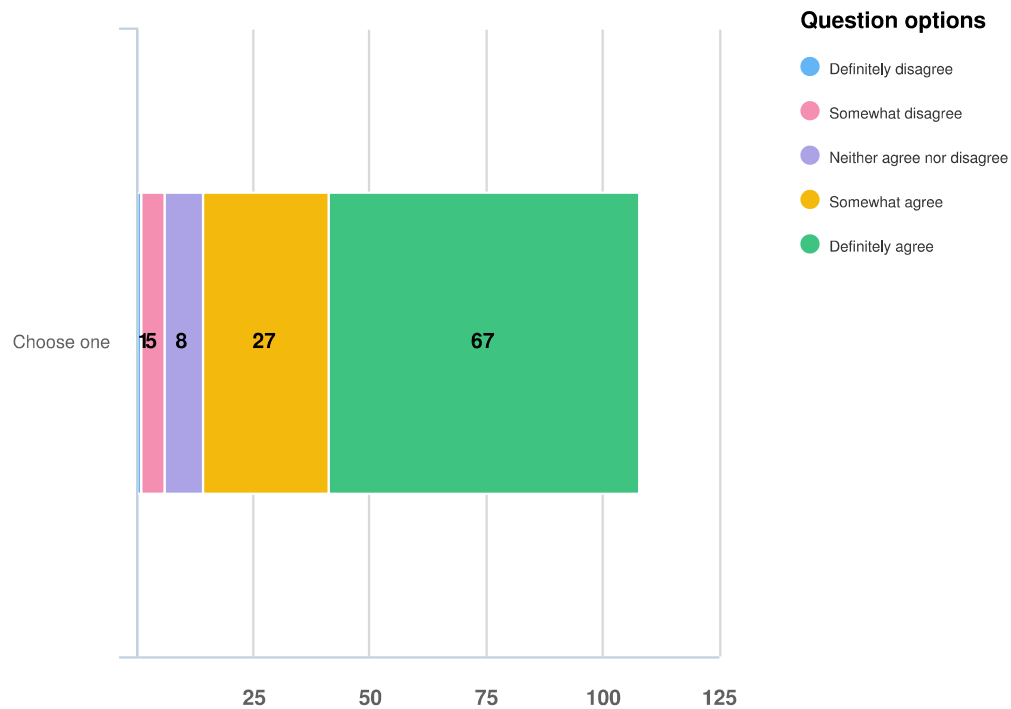

It's important to continue working with schools, the Milton Youth Task Force (MYTF), and other youth groups/young people du...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

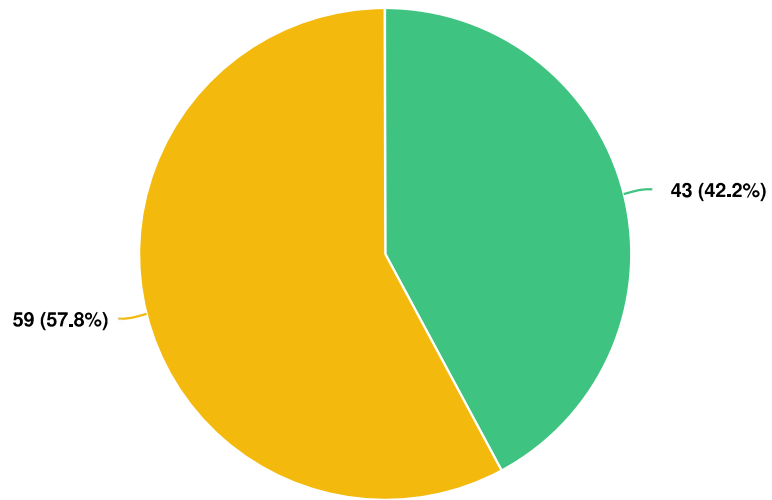

In addition to policy considerations identified in relation to age-friendly design - other goals, objectives, and policies ...

Optional question (108 response(s), 6 skipped)

Question type: Likert Question

Are you interested in participating in a virtual feedback session to discuss the policy directions for Living in Milton?

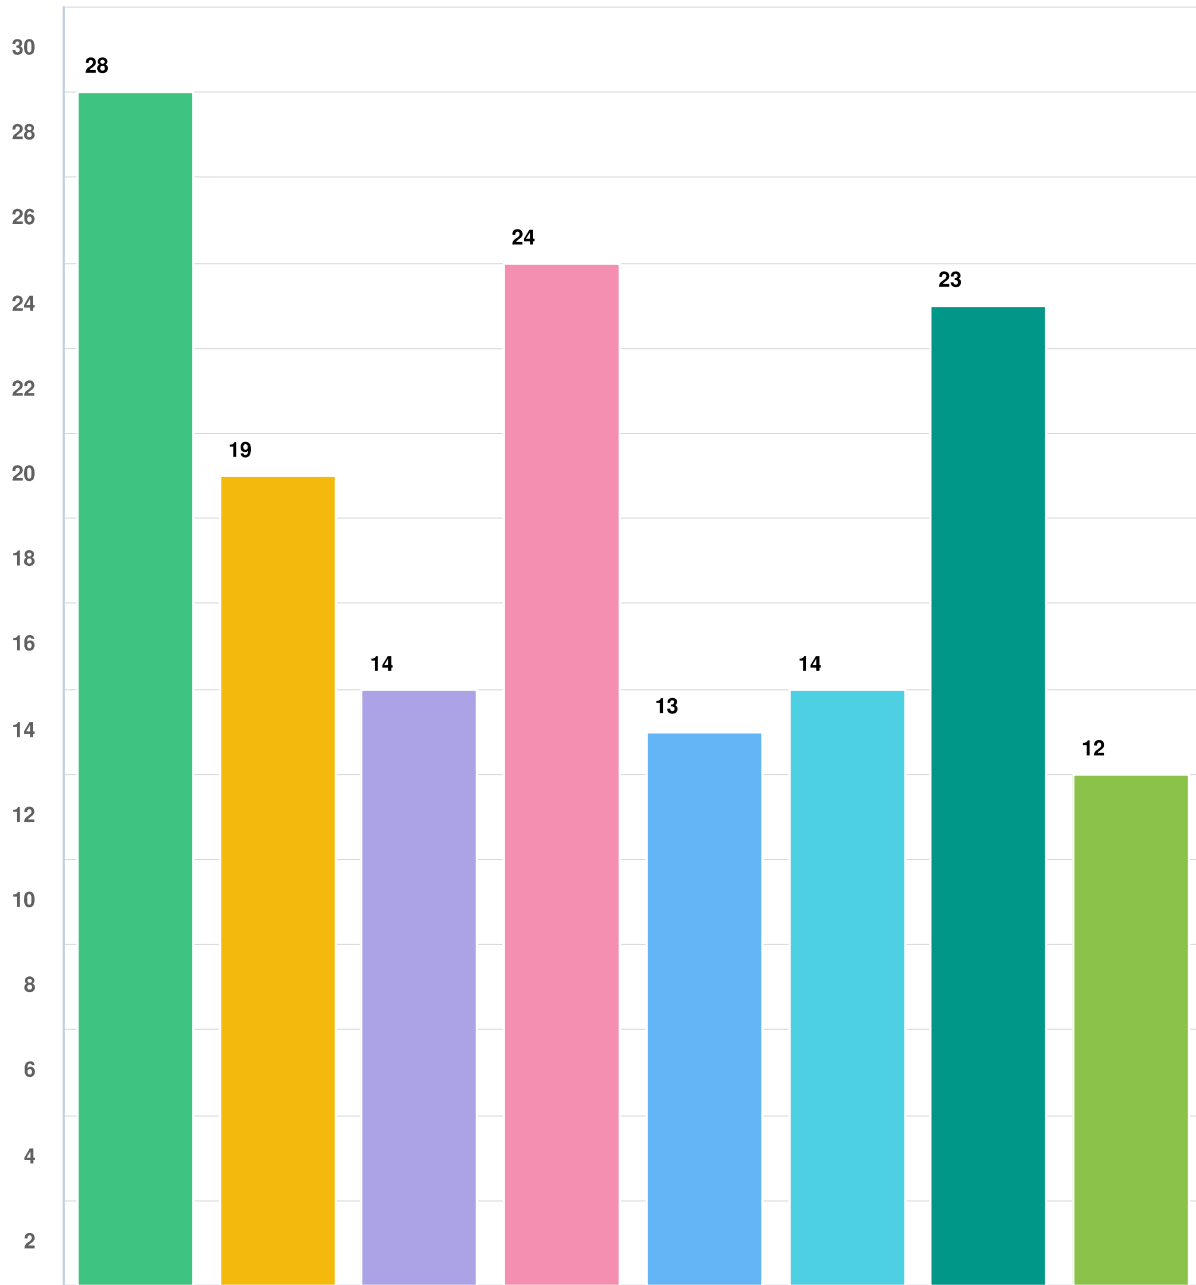

Question options

- No
- Yes

Optional question (102 response(s), 12 skipped)

Question type: Dropdown Question

Which topics are interested in discussing at the virtual feedback session?

Question options

- Youth in Milton
- Urban Design and Creating Spaces
- Rural Living
- Places of Worship
- Parks, Recreation, and Healthy, Active Lifestyles
- History, Cultural Heritage, and Archaeological Resources
- Climate Change and Resiliency
- Affordability and Housing Choice

Optional question (43 response(s), 71 skipped)

Question type: Checkbox Question