

Cultural Heritage Value or Interest Evaluation

Ontario Regulation 9/06 of the Ontario Heritage Act establishes the criteria for determining Cultural Heritage Value of Heritage Resources. A property must have the potential to meet at least two of the criteria to be considered to have heritage significance. These criteria fall into three categories: design or physical value, historical or associative value and contextual value. The following table considers and evaluates the subject property against these criteria.

Table 6: Evaluation of the Cultural Heritage Value of 11017 Guelph Line

The property has design value or physical value because it,
	Criteria	Evaluation
i	is a rare, unique, representative or early example of a style, type, expression, material or construction method	Yes, this house is an example of one-and-a-half-storey Ontario Cottage-style with medium hip roof.
ii	displays a high degree of craftsmanship or artistic merit	No, this home does not display a high degree of craftsmanship
iii	demonstrates a high degree of technical or scientific achievement	No, the property does not demonstrate a high degree of technical or scientific achievement
The property has historical value or associative value because it, i	has direct associations with a theme, event, belief, person, activity, organization or institution that is significant to a community,	Historical home of Dr. Letitia Kean Sirrs nee Meade, one of 18 pioneer women doctors in Ontario and the first female doctor in Haltonville..
ii	Yields or has the potential to yield, information that contributes to an understanding of a community or culture	Yes, it provides historical information on the settlement history of Haltonville as shown in the 1877 Historical Atlas of Halton County.
iii	demonstrates or reflects the work or ideas of an architect, artist, builder, designer or theorist who is significant to a community	Yes, the subject property is associated with Dr. Letitia Sirrs-Meade who contributed to providing health care and teaching services to the pioneers of Haltonville.
The property has contextual value because it,

i	is important in defining, maintaining or supporting the character of an area	Yes, this property contributes to the character of Haltonville.
ii	is physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings	Yes, this property is historically link o to the development of Haltonville
iii	is a landmark	No, the property is not a landmark.

Based on the above criteria, the subject property has significant cultural heritage value based on both design and contextual criteria. These attributes are sufficient to warrant Heritage Designation under the Ontario Heritage Act. However, designation may not be necessary at this time as the property is current listed on the Municipal Heritage Register, which offers it some protection from demolition.
