

Cultural Heritage Value or Interest Evaluation

Ontario Regulation 9/06 of the Ontario Heritage Act establishes the criteria for determining Cultural Heritage Value of Heritage Resources. A property must have the potential to meet at least two of the criteria to be considered to have heritage significance. These criteria fall into three categories: design or physical value, historical or associative value and contextual value. The following table considers and evaluates the subject property against these criteria.

Table 6: Evaluation of the Cultural Heritage Value of 6426 Sixth Line

The property has design value or physical value because it,
	Criteria	Evaluation
i	is a rare, unique, representative or early example of a style, type, expression, material or construction method	Yes, this house is a good example of a two-storey Gothic Revival-style house with cross gable roof, red stretcher brick and a stone foundation
ii	displays a high degree of craftsmanship or artistic merit	Yes, this home has unique one-over-one semicircular windows, with radiating dichromatic brick voussoirs and stone lug sill.
iii	demonstrates a high degree of technical or scientific achievement	No, the property does not demonstrate a high degree of technical or scientific achievement
The property has historical value or associative value because it, i	has direct associations with a theme, event, belief, person, activity, organization or institution that is significant to a community,	It is the historical home of David Featherson and his family who were pioneer farmers in the Trafalgar Township
ii	Yields or has the potential to yield, information that contributes to an understanding of a community or culture	Yes, it provides historical information on the settlement history of Trafalgar as shown in the 1877 Historical Atlas of Halton County.
iii	demonstrates or reflects the work or ideas of an architect, artist, builder, designer or theorist who is significant to a community	No, the subject property is not associated an architect, artist, builder, designer or theorist who is significant to a community
The property has contextual value because it, i	is important in defining, maintaining or supporting the character of an area	Yes, this property is one of the last remaining farm houses in Trafalgar.

ii	is physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings	No, this property is not functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings.
iii	is a landmark	No, the property is not a landmark.

Based on the above criteria, the subject property has significant cultural heritage value based on both design and contextual criteria. These attributes are sufficient to warrant Heritage Designation under the Ontario Heritage Act. However, designation may not be necessary at this time as the property is current listed on the Municipal Heritage Register, which offers it some protection from demolition.
